Stanford Seed
Stanford Institute for Innovation in Developing Economies
SEED RESEARCH

Seed is an extraordinary Stanford GSB-led initiative working to end the cycle of global poverty. As a Seed researcher, you can help advance the world’s fundamental knowledge about poverty, entrepreneurship, innovation, and the growth of firms in developing economies.

Our research funding and activities are 100% focused on global poverty projects. And we’re seeking Stanford faculty and PhD students with big ideas and endless curiosity to join us.

RESEARCH EVENTS
Attend research seminars, workshops, and networking events addressing global poverty alleviation.

VISITING SCHOLARS PROGRAM
Collaborate with visiting academics to facilitate the discovery and testing of new Seed-related research questions.

RESEARCH READING GROUPS
Discuss a variety of topics in global poverty alleviation.
