WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of that certain [____] Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the “Purchase Agreement”), by and among [____], a Delaware limited liability company and an indirectly, wholly-owned subsidiary of the LLC (the “Buyer”), [____] (the “Company”), and [____] (the “Seller”), the Buyer will purchase from [____] all of [____].

WHEREAS, the original members of the LLC entered into a Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of [____] (the “Original LLC Agreement”).

WHEREAS, the Original LLC Agreement was amended and restated in its entirety pursuant to that certain Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the LLC dated [____] (the “Prior LLC Agreement”).

WHEREAS, the Members desire to amend and restate the Prior LLC Agreement to create new classes of Units and to confirm other provisions regarding the governance of the LLC, the conduct of the business and affairs of the LLC, and the relative rights and obligations of the Members.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 DEFINITIONS AND ORGANIZATION AND POWERS

1.01 DEFINITIONS. Terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the following meanings:

- (a) “Acquisition” means the acquisition by Buyer, an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of the LLC, of all [____].

(b) “Adjusted Capital Account” means, with respect to any Member, the balance in such Member’s Capital Account as of the end of the relevant Taxable Year after giving effect to the following adjustments: (i) credit to such Capital Account of any amounts that (A) such Member is obligated to contribute to the LLC upon liquidation of such Member’s interest in the LLC and (B) such Member is obligated to restore or deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(c) or the penultimate sentences of Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5); and (ii) debit to such Capital Account the items described in Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6). This definition of Adjusted Capital Account is intended to comply with the provisions of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) of the Treasury Regulations and will be interpreted consistently therewith.

(c) An “Affiliate” of any Person means (i) a Person that directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the first mentioned Person and (ii) a liquidating trust formed by such Person or by a group including such Person. An Affiliate of a collective investment vehicle shall also include (x) any other collective investment vehicle that is managed or advised by the same Person or by an Affiliate of said Person and any members or partners of such investment vehicle and (y) any limited partner, member, stockholder or other equity holder of such collective investment vehicle. A Person shall be deemed to control another Person if such first Person possesses directly or indirectly the power to direct, or cause the direction of, the management and policies of the second Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

(d) “Award Agreement” means any Incentive Unit Grant Agreement under the Equity Incentive Plan.

(e) “Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the total amount of cash and the initial Gross Asset Value of property (other than cash) contributed to the capital of the LLC by or on behalf of a Member, whether as an initial capital contribution or as an additional capital contribution.

(h) “Depreciation” means, for each Taxable Year, an amount equal to the depreciation, amortization or other cost recovery deduction allowable with respect to an asset for such Taxable Year, except that if the Gross Asset Value of an asset differs from its adjusted basis for U.S. federal income tax purposes at the beginning of such Taxable Year, Depreciation will be an amount which bears the same ratio to such beginning Gross Asset Value as the U.S. federal income tax depreciation, amortization or other cost recovery deduction for such Taxable Year bears to such beginning adjusted tax basis; provided, however, that if the adjusted basis for U.S. federal income tax purposes of an asset at the beginning of such Taxable Year is zero, Depreciation will be determined with reference to such beginning Gross Asset Value using any reasonable method selected by the Board.

(i) “Designated Individual” has the meaning set forth in Section 4.06(a).

(j) “Executive” means [INSERT NAME OF SEARCHER(S)].

(k) “Expenses” means all expenses, including attorneys’ fees and disbursements, actually and reasonably incurred in defense of a proceeding or in seeking indemnification under Article 5, and except for proceedings by or in the right of the LLC or alleging that an Indemnified Party received an improper personal benefit, any judgments, awards, fines, penalties and reasonable amounts paid in settlement of a proceeding.

(i) the initial Gross Asset Value of any asset contributed by a Member to the LLC will be the fair market value of such asset as determined by the Board at the time it is accepted by the LLC, unreduced by any liability secured by such asset, as determined by the Board;

(ii) the Gross Asset Values of all LLC assets may be adjusted to equal their respective fair market values, unreduced by any liabilities secured by such assets, as determined by the Board as of the following times, if the Board reasonably determines that such adjustment is necessary or appropriate to reflect the relative membership interests of the Members in the LLC: (A) the acquisition of additional Units by any new or existing Member in exchange for more than a de minimis Capital Contribution; (B) the distribution by the LLC to a Member of more than a de minimis amount of cash or property as consideration for Units; (C) the liquidation of the LLC within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g); (D) the grant of a membership interest in the LLC (other than a de minimis interest), including, without limitation, a grant of Units intended to be “profits interests” for U.S. federal income tax purposes, as consideration for the provision of services to or for the benefit of the LLC by an existing Member acting in a member capacity, or by a new Member acting in a Member capacity or in anticipation of becoming a Member of the LLC; and (E) at such other times as the Board shall reasonably determine necessary or advisable in order to comply with Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2;

(iii) the Gross Asset Value of any asset of the LLC distributed to any Member will be adjusted to equal the fair market value of such asset, unreduced by any liability secured by such asset, on the date of distribution as determined by the Board;

(iv) the Gross Asset Value of the LLC assets will be increased (or decreased) to reflect any adjustments to the adjusted basis of such assets pursuant to Sections 734(b) or 743(b) of the Code but only to the extent that such adjustments are taken into account in determining Capital Accounts pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m) and paragraph (vi) of the definition of “Net Profit” and “Net Loss”; and

(v) if the Gross Asset Value of an asset has been determined or adjusted pursuant to paragraph (i), (ii) or (iv) of this definition, such Gross Asset Value will thereafter be adjusted by the Depreciation taken into account with respect to such asset for purposes of computing Net Profit and Net Loss.

(m) “Imputed Underpayment Amount” means (i) any “imputed underpayment” within the meaning of Code Section 6225 (or any corresponding or similar provision of federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law) paid (or payable) by the LLC, including any interest, penalties or additions to tax with respect to any such adjustment, (ii) any amount not described in clause (i) (including any interest, penalties or additions to tax with respect to such amounts) paid (or payable) by the LLC as a result of the application of the provisions of Code Sections 6221-6241 (or any corresponding or similar provision of federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law), and/or (iii) any amount paid (or payable) by any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes in which the LLC holds (or has held) a direct or indirect interest other than through entities treated as corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent that the LLC bears the economic burden of such amounts, whether by law or agreement, as a result of the application of the provisions of Code Sections 6221-6241 (or any corresponding or similar provision of federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law), including any interest, penalties or additions to tax with respect to such amounts.

(n) “Indemnified Party” includes (i) a person serving as an Officer of the LLC or in a similar executive capacity appointed by the Board and exercising rights and duties delegated by the Board, (ii) a person serving at the request of the LLC as a director, manager, officer, employee or other agent of another organization, (iii) any person who formerly served in any of the foregoing capacities, (iv) the Directors and their affiliates, (v) the LLC Representative, and (vi) any Designated Individual.

(iii) in the event the Gross Asset Value of any LLC asset is adjusted pursuant to paragraph (ii) or (iii) of the definition of “Gross Asset Value,” the amount of such adjustment will be taken into account as gain or loss from the disposition of such asset for purposes of computing Net Profit or Net Loss;

(vi) to the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any LLC asset pursuant to Sections 734(b) or 743(b) of the Code is required pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m) to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts as a result of a distribution other than in complete liquidation of a Member’s interest in the LLC, the amount of such adjustment will be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases the basis of the asset) from the disposition of the asset and will be taken into account for purposes of computing Net Profit or Net Loss; and

and Section 8.05(d)(ii) hereof shall not be taken into account in computing Net Profit or Net Loss. The amounts of the items of LLC income, gain, loss or deduction available to be specially allocated pursuant to Section 8.05(a) and Section 8.05(d)(ii) hereof shall be determined by applying rules analogous to those set forth in this definition of Net Profit and Net Loss.

(b) Designation of Units. The LLC is authorized to have four (4) classes of Units, designated as Common Units, Series A Preferred Units, Series B Preferred Units and Class P Units. The LLC is authorized to issue up to the following number of Units: (i) [] Series A Preferred Units, (ii) [] Series B Preferred Units, (iii) [] Common Units and (iv) [] Class P Units.² Subject to Section 2.05(a), the Board has the exclusive authority to (x) issue Units and to authorize additional Units for issuance and (y) adopt the Equity Incentive Plan or similar plans to issue Class P Units to employees, directors or consultants of the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of this Agreement (including Schedule B hereto). Any Common Units held by the Executive or any Class P Units held by any other employees, directors or consultants of the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries shall initially be designated as either Unvested Common Units or Vested Common Units as more fully set forth on Schedule B hereto or Unvested Class P Units or Vested Class P Units as set forth in the Equity Incentive Plan and the applicable Award Agreement thereunder and shall be subject to the vesting provisions set forth thereon or therein, as applicable.

(c) Initial Capital Contribution. Each Investor and each other Member has made the initial Capital Contribution set forth opposite his, her or its name and as allocated among the Units on Schedule A attached hereto.

(d) No Reduction in Member's Units. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement (including Schedule B hereto), an equity incentive plan to be approved by the Board (the "Equity Incentive Plan") or any Award Agreements thereunder, the number of Units held by a Member shall not be reduced without such Member's consent.

(e) Common Units; Class P Units. Unless otherwise designated by the Board, any Common Units issued to the Executive on the date hereof and any Class P Units issued after the date hereof are intended to be "profits interests" for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Revenue Procedure 93-27, I.R.B. 1993-24, and Revenue Procedure 2001-43, I.R.B. 2001-34. The terms of such Common Units and Class P Units, including the right to participate in distributions under this Agreement, may be subject to such limitations and other requirements as the Board may determine is necessary or appropriate for such interests to so qualify as profits interest. In furtherance of such intent, notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary: (i) no items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit shall be allocated to any Member in respect of such Member's Common Units or Class P Units to the extent such items relate to any unrealized income, gain, loss, deduction or credit of the LLC as of the issuance date of such Common Units or Class P Units, as applicable; (ii) any distribution by the LLC to any Member in respect of such Member's Common Units or Class P Units shall be limited to the minimum extent necessary to be consistent with the treatment of such Common Units or Class P Units, respectively, as "profits interests" for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and (iii) such Common Units and Class P Units shall be subject to such additional terms and conditions as may be set forth in Schedule B hereto with respect to the Common Units or, with respect to the Class P Units, in the Equity Incentive Plan or such other equity incentive plan(s) that may be adopted by the Board. The Board (or its designee) shall set a benchmark amount with respect to each grant of Common Units or Class P Units (the "Benchmark Amount"), which shall normally represent the aggregate amount that would have been distributed to the holders of all of the Units pursuant to Article 8, if immediately prior to the issuance of such Common Units or Class P Units, as applicable, the LLC had sold its assets for their fair market value, paid its obligations and liabilities (limited, in the case of nonrecourse liabilities, to the collateral securing or otherwise available to satisfy such liabilities) and distributed the net proceeds to its Members. The Board (or its designee) shall, however, have the authority and discretion to establish any Benchmark Amount that is at least equal to the fair market value of the equity interests of the LLC or to adjust any previously established Benchmark Amount (including, but not limited to, as may be appropriate to account for subsequent capital investments in the LLC). The Board's (or its designee's) determination of the Benchmark Amount shall be final, binding and conclusive on the holders of Common Units and Class P Units, the other Members and the LLC. Each Benchmark Amount established with respect to any Common Units or Class P Units, as applicable, shall be set forth in the books and records of the LLC, which shall be updated from time to time to reflect any adjustments to the Benchmark Amount. Except as required by any non-waivable provision of the Act, the Class P Units shall be non-voting. Each Award Agreement granting Class P Units will include an affirmative statement including language that such interests represent a profits interests in the LLC and that holders of such Class P Units shall only be entitled to receive a distribution thereunder if and only to the extent that the amounts distributed since the issuance of such Class P Units exceeds such Class P Units' Benchmark Amount. For the avoidance of doubt and in furtherance of the foregoing, any Member holding Common Units or Class P Units hereby acknowledges and agrees that such Member shall only be entitled to receive a distribution hereunder, (x) if such Common Units or Class P Units, as applicable, are vested as of the date of the distribution (pursuant to the terms of the applicable grant of such Common Units or Class P Units) and (y) only to the extent that the distribution amount (taking into account any earlier distributions to which such unit was entitled) exceeds such unit's Benchmark Amount. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Holders of Common Units and Class P Units shall be entitled to receive Tax Distributions pursuant to Section 8.01(d) to the extent they have a Tax Liability attributable to their Common Units or Class P Units, respectively.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting if one or more written consents to such action shall be signed by the Members holding the amount of Units required to approve the action being taken. Such written consents shall be delivered to the Executive Officer(s) at the principal office of the LLC and, unless otherwise specified, shall be effective on the date when the first consent is so delivered. The LLC Representative shall be the Executive, to the extent [he/she] is eligible, for so long as [he/she] remains a Member of the LLC. The LLC Representative shall have the sole authority to appoint on behalf of the LLC any “designated individual” of the LLC (a “Designated Individual”) as required by Treasury Regulations Section 301.6223-1(b)(3) or any similar provision of state and local law. If the LLC is required to appoint a Designated Individual pursuant to Code Section 6223 and Treasury Regulations thereunder (or similar provisions of state, local or other tax laws) for any taxable year or other period, such Designated Individual shall be subject to this Agreement in the same manner as the LLC Representative (and references to the LLC Representative shall include any such Designated Individual unless the context otherwise requires or shall mean solely the Designated Individual as needed to comply with applicable law). The LLC Representative and the Designated Individual shall be entitled to be reimbursed for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses properly incurred in his, her or its capacity as the LLC Representative or Designated Individual. If the Board determines that a person appointed as the LLC Representative shall no longer have authority to act on behalf of the LLC in such capacity, then such person shall take all steps required under the Code, Treasury Regulations, or other guidance promulgated by the IRS to resign such position.

request of the LLC Representative, (A) file an amended U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year which includes the end of the taxable year to which the Imputed Underpayment Amount relates and to pay any tax due in connection with such tax return in accordance with Code Section 6225(c)(2) or a similar provision of state or local law or (B) comply with procedures for Members to take adjustments into account in accordance with Code Section 6225(c)(2)(B) or any similar provision of state of local law. A Member's obligation to comply with this Section shall survive the transfer, assignment or liquidation of such Member's interest in the LLC.

(c) The LLC Representative is authorized and required to represent the LLC (at the LLC's expense) in connection with all examinations of the LLC's affairs by tax authorities, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to expend LLC funds for professional services or costs associated therewith. The LLC Representative shall promptly advise the other Members upon receiving written notice of any audits or other actions by the IRS or other taxing authority with respect to the LLC. ARTICLE 5 INDEMNIFICATION

5.01 OFFICER/DIRECTOR INDEMNIFICATION. Except as limited by law and subject to the provisions of this Article 5, the LLC shall indemnify each Indemnified Party against all expenses incurred by them in connection with any proceeding in which an Indemnified Party is involved as a result of serving in such capacity, except that no indemnification shall be provided for an Indemnified Party regarding any matter as to which it shall be finally determined (a) that said Indemnified Party did not act in good faith and in the reasonable belief that such Indemnified Party's action was in the best interests of the LLC, or (b) with respect to a criminal matter, that said Indemnified Party had reasonable cause to believe that such Indemnified Party's conduct was unlawful. Subject to the foregoing limitations, such indemnification may be provided by the LLC with respect to a proceeding in which it is claimed that an Indemnified Party received an improper personal benefit by reason of its position, regardless of whether the claim arises out of the Indemnified Party's service in such capacity, except for matters as to which it is finally determined that an improper personal benefit was received by the Indemnified Party.

5.02 AWARD OF INDEMNIFICATION. An Indemnified Party may only be determined to be ineligible for indemnification if a determination is made by independent legal counsel appointed by the Board that indemnification of such Indemnified Party would be a violation of law or inconsistent with the provisions of Section 5.01.

5.03 SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this Article 5, if an Indemnified Party has been wholly successful on the merits in the defense of any proceeding in which it was involved by reason of its position as an Indemnified Party or as a result of serving in such capacity (including termination of investigative or other proceedings without a finding of fault on the part of the Indemnified Party), the Indemnified Party shall be indemnified by the LLC against all Expenses incurred by the Indemnified Party in connection therewith.

5.04 ADVANCE PAYMENTS. Except as limited by law or the provisions of this Article 5, expenses incurred by an Indemnified Party in defending any proceeding, including a proceeding by or in the right of the LLC, may be paid by the LLC to the Indemnified Party in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The LLC may require that such Indemnified Party execute a written undertaking to repay the amount of any advance if the Indemnified Party is determined pursuant to this Article 5 or adjudicated to be ineligible for indemnification. Any such undertaking by an Indemnified Party shall be an unlimited general obligation of the Indemnified Party, need not be secured and may be accepted without regard to the financial ability of the Indemnified Party to make repayment. No advance payment of expenses shall be made if it is determined pursuant to Section 5.02 on the basis of the circumstances known at the time (without further investigation) that the Indemnified Party is ineligible for indemnification.

5.05 INSURANCE. The LLC shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Indemnified Party, agent or employee against any liability or cost incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of its status as such, whether or not the LLC would have power to indemnify against such liability or cost. The LLC shall purchase director and officer indemnification insurance in amounts and on terms satisfactory to the Board.

5.06 EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN. If the LLC sponsors or undertakes any responsibility as a fiduciary with respect to an employee benefit plan, then for purposes of this Article 5 (a) the term Indemnified Party shall be deemed to include any officer of the LLC who serves at its request in any capacity with respect to said plan, (b) said Indemnified Party shall not be deemed to have failed to act in good faith or in the reasonable belief that its action was in the best interests of the LLC if said Indemnified Party acted in good faith and in the reasonable belief that its action was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of said plan, and (c) expenses shall be deemed to include any taxes or penalties imposed upon said Indemnified Party with respect to said plan under applicable law.

(a) Without limitation of any other provision of this Agreement or any agreement executed in connection herewith, the LLC agrees to defend, indemnify and hold each Investor, its respective affiliates and direct and indirect partners (including partners of partners and stockholders and investors of partners), investors, stockholders, directors, officers, employees and agents and each person who controls any of them within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or Section 20 of the Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) (collectively, the “Investor Indemnified Parties” and, individually, an “Investor Indemnified Party”) harmless from and against any and all damages, liabilities, losses, taxes, fines, penalties, reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable fees of a single counsel representing the Investor Indemnified Parties), as the same are incurred, of any kind or nature whatsoever (whether or not arising out of third party claims and including all amounts paid in investigation, defense or settlement of the foregoing) which may be sustained or suffered by any such Investor Indemnified Party (“Losses”), based upon, arising out of, or by reason of (i) any breach of any covenant or agreement made by the LLC in this Agreement, or (ii) any third party or governmental claims relating in any way to such Investor Indemnified Party’s status as a security holder, creditor, director, agent, representative or controlling person of the LLC or otherwise relating to such Investor Indemnified Party’s involvement with the LLC (including, without limitation, any and all Losses under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or other federal or state statutory law or regulation, at common law or otherwise, which relate directly or indirectly to the registration, purchase, sale or ownership of any securities of the LLC or to any fiduciary obligation owed with respect thereto), including, without limitation, in connection with any third party or governmental action or claim relating to any action taken or omitted to be taken or alleged to have been taken or omitted to have been taken by any Investor Indemnified Party as security holder, director, agent, representative or controlling person of the LLC or otherwise, alleging so called control person liability or securities law liability; provided, however, that the LLC will not be liable to the extent that such Losses arise from and are based on (A) an untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission in a registration statement or prospectus which is made in reliance on and in conformity with written information furnished to the LLC by or on behalf of such Investor Indemnified Party, or (B) conduct by an Investor Indemnified Party which constitutes fraud or willful misconduct.

(b) If the indemnification provided for in Section 5.07(a) above for any reason is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unavailable to an Investor Indemnified Party in respect of any Losses referred to therein, then the LLC, in lieu of indemnifying such Investor Indemnified Party thereunder, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Investor Indemnified Party as a result of such Losses (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the LLC and the Investors, or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the relative fault of the LLC and the Investors in connection with the action or inaction which resulted in such Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the LLC and the Investors shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the LLC and the Investors and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission.

(c) Each of the LLC and the Investors agrees that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to Section 5.07(b) were determined by pro rata or per capita allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph.

5.08 NON-EXCLUSIVITY; INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS. The provisions of this Article 5 shall not be construed to limit the power of the LLC to indemnify its Members, Directors, Officers, employees or agents to the fullest extent permitted by law or to enter into specific agreements, commitments or arrangements for indemnification permitted by law. The absence of any express provision for indemnification herein shall not limit any right of indemnification existing independently of this Article 5. The LLC and each Director concurrently herewith shall enter into indemnification agreements in form and substance satisfactory to the Investors. The right of indemnification hereby provided shall not be exclusive of, and shall not affect, any other rights to which an Indemnified Party or an Investor Indemnified Party may be entitled at law, under other agreements or otherwise. Nothing contained in this Article 5 shall limit any lawful rights to indemnification existing independently of this Article 5. The LLC acknowledges that an indemnified party may have certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by its fund sponsor or other affiliates (collectively, the "Sponsor Indemnitors"). The LLC agrees that (a) it is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to the indemnified party are primary and any obligation of the Sponsor Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by such indemnified party are secondary), (b) it shall be required to advance the full amount of expenses incurred by such indemnified party and shall be liable for the full amount of all expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the extent legally permitted and as required by the terms of this Agreement, the LLC's organizational documents, or any other agreement between the LLC and such indemnified party, without regard to any rights such indemnified party may have against the Sponsor Indemnitors, and (c) it irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Sponsor Indemnitors from any and all claims against the Sponsor Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. The LLC further agrees that no advancement or payment by the Sponsor Indemnitors on behalf of such indemnified party with respect to any claim for which such indemnified party has sought indemnification from the LLC shall affect the foregoing and the Sponsor Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution and/or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of such indemnified party against the LLC. The LLC and such indemnified party agree that the Sponsor Indemnitors are express third party beneficiaries of the terms of this Section 5.08.

ARTICLE 6 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

6.01 TRANSACTIONS WITH INTERESTED PERSONS. Unless entered into in bad faith, no contract or transaction between the LLC and one or more of its Officers, Directors or

Members, or between the LLC and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its Officers, Directors or Members have a financial interest or are directors, partners, managers or officers, that satisfies the conditions below shall be voidable solely for this reason or solely because said Officer, Director or Member was present or participated in the authorization of such contract or transaction. No Officer, Director or Member interested in such contract or transaction, because of such interest, shall be considered to be in breach of this Agreement or liable to the LLC, any Officer, Director or Member, or any other person or organization for any loss or expense incurred by reason of such contract or transaction or shall be accountable for any gain or profit realized from such contract or transaction. A contract or transaction satisfies the provisions of this Section 6.01 if:

(a) the material facts as to the relationship or interest of said Officer, Director or Member and as to the contract or transaction were disclosed or known to the Directors or Members and the contract or transaction was authorized by the disinterested Members or Directors; and

(b) the contract or transaction was fair to the LLC as of the time it was authorized, approved or ratified by the disinterested Members or Directors.

6.02 OUTSIDE BUSINESSES. Any Member or Director, unless also an Officer or employee of the LLC or its Subsidiaries, may engage or have an interest in other business ventures which are similar to or competitive with the business of the LLC, and the pursuit of such ventures, even if competitive, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper or give the LLC, its Officers or other Members any rights with respect thereto. No Member or Director, unless also an Officer or employee of the LLC or its Subsidiaries, shall be obligated to present an investment opportunity to the LLC even if it is similar to or competitive with the business of the LLC, and such Member or Director shall have a right to take for its own account or recommend to others any such investment opportunity. Prior Board approval shall be required for the involvement of any Executive Officer or other employee of the LLC or its Subsidiaries in any potentially competitive outside business activities.

ARTICLE 7 CAPITAL ACCOUNTS AND CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

7.01 CAPITAL ACCOUNTS.

(a) A separate capital account (a "Capital Account") shall be maintained for each Member in accordance with Section 704(b) of the Code and Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) of the U.S. Treasury Regulations (the "Treasury Regulations"), and this Section 7.01 shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with said Section of the Treasury Regulations. The LLC will maintain Capital Accounts for each Member in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) To each Member's Capital Account there will be credited (A) the amount of money contributed by such Member to the LLC, (B) the Gross Asset Value of property contributed by such Member to the LLC, (C) such Member's distributive share of Net Profit and any items in the nature of income or gain which are specially allocated to such Member pursuant to this Agreement, and (D) the amount of any LLC liabilities assumed by such Member or to which any property distributed to such Member is subject.

(ii) From each Member's Capital Account there will be debited (A) the amount of money distributed to such Member pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, (B) the Gross Asset Value of any property distributed to such Member pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, (C) such Member's distributive share of Net Loss and any items in the nature of expenses or losses which are specially allocated to such Member pursuant to this Agreement, and (D) the amount of any liabilities of such Member considered, under Section 752 of the Code, to be assumed by the LLC or to which any property contributed by such Member to the LLC is subject.

(iii) In the event any interest is transferred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent it relates to the transferred interest.

(iv) In determining the amount of any liability for purposes of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above, there shall be taken into account Code Section 752(c) and any other applicable provisions of the Code and Treasury Regulations.

(v) The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2 and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Treasury Regulations. In the event that the Board shall determine it is prudent to modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts, or any additions thereto or subtractions therefrom, are computed in order to comply with such Treasury Regulations, the Board may make such modification, provided that it is not likely to have a material effect on the amounts distributable to any Member pursuant to Article 8 hereof upon the dissolution of the LLC.

(b) The LLC may adjust the Capital Accounts of its Members to reflect revaluations of the LLC property whenever the adjustment would be permitted under Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f). In the event that the Capital Accounts of the Members are so adjusted, (i) the adjustment shall be based on the fair market value of the LLC property, as determined by the Board, on the date of adjustment, (ii) the adjustment shall reflect the manner in which unrealized income, gain, loss, or deduction inherent in such LLC property (that has not been previously reflected in Capital Accounts) would be allocated among the Members if there were a taxable disposition of such property at fair market value on that date, (iii) the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be adjusted in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(g) for allocations of depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss, as computed for book purposes, with respect to such property and (iv) the Members' distributive shares of depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain or loss, as computed for tax purposes, with respect to such property shall be determined so as to take account of the variation between the adjusted tax basis and book value of such property in the same manner as under Section 704(c) of the Code. In the event that Code Section 704(c) applies to LLC property, the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be adjusted in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(g) for allocations of depreciation, depletion, amortization and gain and loss, as computed for book purposes, with respect to such property. The Capital Accounts shall be maintained for the sole purpose of allocating items of income, gain, loss and deduction among the Members and shall have no effect on the amount of any distributions to any Members in liquidation or otherwise. The amount of all distributions to Members shall be determined pursuant to Article 8.

7.02 CAPITAL COMMITMENTS BY MEMBERS. Each Member holding Units shall be obligated to make contributions to the capital of the LLC, if any, up to the aggregate amount of such Member's Capital Commitment specified opposite his, her or its name on Schedule A (the Member's "Capital Commitment"), which shall include such Member's initial Capital Contribution. Capital Contributions may be paid in cash or property, in exchange for Common Units, Preferred Units or as otherwise agreed by the Board. Except as set forth on Schedule A, no Member shall be entitled or required to make any contribution to the capital of the LLC; however, the LLC may borrow from its Members as well as from banks or other lending institutions to finance its working capital or the acquisition of assets upon such terms and conditions as shall be approved by the Board, and any borrowing from Members shall not be considered Capital Contributions or reflected in their Capital Accounts. In the event of additional Capital Contributions, Schedule A shall be amended to reflect such additional Capital Contributions. No Member shall be entitled to any interest or compensation with respect to his, her or its Capital Contribution or any services rendered on behalf of the LLC except as specifically provided in this Agreement or approved by the Board. No Member shall have any liability for the repayment of the Capital Contribution of any other Member and each Member shall look only to the assets of the LLC for return of his, her or its Capital Contribution.

7.03 PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS.

(a) Right to Participate in Certain Sales of Additional Securities. The LLC agrees that it will not sell or issue or agree to sell or issue: (a) any Units (which for purposes of this Section 7.03 shall include any economic or other interest in the LLC), (b) securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Units, (c) options, warrants or rights carrying any rights to purchase Units or (d) debt securities, notes or other indebtedness that are or may become convertible into, exchangeable into or exercisable for Units, unless the LLC first submits a written notice to each Member holding Series B Preferred Units or Vested Common Units (each, an "Eligible Member") identifying the terms of the proposed sale (including price, number or aggregate principal amount of securities and all other material terms), and offers to each Eligible Member the opportunity to purchase its Pro Rata Allotment (as hereinafter defined) of the securities (subject to increase for over-allotment if some Eligible Members do not fully exercise their rights) on terms and conditions, including price, not less favorable than those on which the LLC proposes to sell such securities to a third party or parties (a "Pre-Emptive Right Notice"). The LLC's offer pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall remain open and irrevocable for a period of fifteen (15) days following receipt by the Eligible Member of such written notice.

(b) Eligible Member Acceptance. Each of the Eligible Members shall have the right to purchase its Pro Rata Allotment by giving written notice of such intent to participate (the “Pre-Emptive Right Acceptance Notice”) to the LLC within fifteen (15) days after receipt by such Eligible Member of the Pre-Emptive Right Notice (the “Pre-Emptive Right Acceptance Election Period”). Each Pre-Emptive Right Acceptance Notice shall indicate the maximum number or amount, as applicable, of securities subject thereto which the Eligible Member wishes to buy, including the number or amount, as applicable, of securities it would buy if one or more other Eligible Members do not elect to participate in the sale on the terms and conditions stated in the Pre-Emptive Right Notice.

(c) Calculation of Pro Rata Allotment. Each Eligible Member’s “Pro Rata Allotment” of such securities shall be based on the ratio which the number of Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units owned by such Eligible Member (including for each holder of Series B Preferred Units, as though such holder owned a pro-rata percentage of any Vested Common Units or Unvested Common Units which have been forfeited or cancelled as of such date based on each such holders’ relative holdings of Series B Preferred Units) bears to all of the issued and outstanding Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units held by all Eligible Members (including all Common Units forfeited or cancelled as of such date) as of the date of such written offer. If one or more Eligible Members do not elect to purchase their full respective Pro Rata Allotment, each of the electing Eligible Members may purchase such available shares of such Eligible Members’ allotments taking into account the maximum amount each is wishing to purchase on a pro rata basis, based on the ratio which the number of Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units owned by each such electing Eligible Member (including for each holder of Series B Preferred Units, as though such holder owned a pro-rata percentage of any Vested Common Units or Unvested Common Units which have been forfeited or cancelled as of such date based on each such holders’ relative holdings of Series B Preferred Units) bears to all of the issued and outstanding Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units held by all electing Eligible Members (including all Common Units forfeited or cancelled as of the date of such written offer. Unvested Common Units held by any Eligible Members shall be deemed outstanding for purposes of the calculation of Pro Rata Allotment hereunder.

(d) Sale to Third Party. Any securities so offered that are not purchased by the Eligible Members pursuant to the offer set forth in Section 7.03(a) above may be sold by the LLC, but only on terms and conditions not more favorable to the purchaser than those set forth in the notice to Eligible Members, at any time after five (5) days but within sixty (60) days following the termination of the above referenced fifteen (15) day period, but may not be sold to any other Person or on terms and conditions, including price, that are more favorable to the purchaser than those set forth in such offer or after such sixty (60) day period without renewed compliance with this Section 7.03.

(e) Exceptions to Pre-Emptive Rights. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the right to purchase granted under this Section 7.03 shall be inapplicable with respect to: (i) the issuance of Common Units or Class P Units (as appropriately adjusted for any split, combination, reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, unit distribution, unit dividend or similar event) issued or issuable in connection with, or upon the exercise of, options or other awards granted or to be granted to employees, officers or directors of the LLC or its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Agreement (including Schedule B hereto) or the Equity Incentive Plan (if any), including Common Units or Class P Units issued in replacement of such Common Units or Class P Units repurchased or issuable upon the exercise of any options to purchase such Common Units or Class P Units in each case, to the extent permitted under this Agreement or the Equity Incentive Plan approved by the Board (if any); (ii) securities issued as a result of any split, dividend, reclassification or reorganization or similar event with respect to the Units; (iii) Common Units issued upon exchange of, or as a dividend on, the Preferred Units; (iv) securities issued in connection with the LLC's (or its successor's) initial public offering, (v) securities issued as consideration to a seller in connection with an acquisition by the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries of another Person or business or (vi) any securities for which a Series B Majority Interest waives such right on behalf of all Eligible Members.

(f) Assignment of Rights. Subject to Article 9 hereof, each Eligible Member shall have the right to assign its rights under this Section 7.03 to any Permitted Transferee (as defined in Section 9.02) of such Eligible Member's Units, and shall further have the right to assign and transfer such Eligible Member's right to accept any particular offer under Section 7.03(a) hereof to any Affiliates of such Eligible Member, and any such Transferee shall be deemed within the definition of a "Member" for purposes of this Section 7.03.

(g) Termination. The rights contained in this Section 7.03 shall terminate upon the consummation of a QPO.

ARTICLE 8 DISTRIBUTIONS AND ALLOCATIONS

8.01 DISTRIBUTION OF LLC FUNDS.

(a) Distributions. Except as otherwise limited by the Act, or other provisions of this Article 8, all amounts which are determined by the Board to be available for distribution shall be distributed to the Members in the following order and priority:

(i) first, to the Members holding Series A Preferred Units in proportion to the cumulative Series A Unpaid Preferred Return attributable to the Series A Preferred Units held by such Members, in an amount equal to the cumulative Series A Unpaid Preferred Return of all such Series A Preferred Units for all periods or portions thereof through the time of such distribution;

(ii) second, to the Members holding Series A Preferred Units in proportion to the cumulative Series A Preferred Unreturned Contributions attributable to the Series A Preferred Units held by such members, in an amount equal to the aggregate Series A Preferred Unreturned Contributions of all such Series A Preferred Units as of such time;

(iii) third, to the Members holding Series B Preferred Units in proportion to the cumulative Series B Preferred Unreturned Contributions attributable to the Series B Preferred Units held by such Members, in an amount equal to the aggregate Series B Preferred Unreturned Contributions of all such Series B Preferred Units as of such time;

(iv) [fourth, to the Members holding Vested Common Units in proportion to their respective number of Vested Common Units, in an amount equal to the product of (A) the aggregate amount distributed pursuant to Section 8.01(a)(i) multiplied by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the aggregate number of Vested Common Units outstanding as of such time and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Series B Preferred Units outstanding as of such time; and]

(v) thereafter, subject to any limitations attributable to one or more Benchmark Amounts described in Section 8.01(b) or the limitations set forth in Section 2.02(e), any remaining amounts to the Members holding Vested Common Units, Vested Class P Units and/or Series B Preferred Units, in proportion to their respective Ownership Percentages; provided, however that (A) (1) any amounts which would have been payable with respect to any Unvested Common Units if such Units were Vested Common Units shall be paid to the Members holding Series B Preferred Units, in proportion to their respective number of Series B Preferred Units and (2) any amounts which would have been payable with respect to any Unvested Class P Units if such Units were Vested Class P Units shall be paid to the Members holding Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units in proportion to the number of such Units held by such holders, (B) in the event that any issued Common Units are cancelled, forfeited or repurchased by the LLC, any amounts which would have been payable with respect to any such Common Units if such Common Units were not cancelled, forfeited or repurchased by the LLC shall be paid to the Members holding Series B Preferred Units in proportion to their respective number of Series B Preferred Units and (C) in the event that any issued Class P Units are cancelled, forfeited or repurchased by the LLC, any amounts which would have been payable with respect to any such Class P Units if such Class P Units were not cancelled, forfeited or repurchased by the LLC shall be paid to the Members holding Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units, in proportion to the number of such Units held by such holders.

(b) Application of Benchmark Amount. Any Unit with an associated Benchmark Amount shall not be included for purposes of, and shall not participate in, distributions pursuant to Section 8.01(a) until an aggregate amount equal to the Benchmark Amount associated with such Unit has been distributed (after the issuance of such Unit) under Section 8.01(a), it being understood that, solely for the purposes of Section 8.01(a), such Unit shall not be considered to be issued or outstanding until such previous distributions have been made and thereafter, such Unit shall be treated as issued and outstanding and shall participate in any remaining amounts to be distributed in accordance with Section 8.01(a).

(c) Common Unit/Class P Unit Catch-Up.

(i) In furtherance of the provisos set forth in Section 8.01(a)(v), each of the Members hereby agrees and acknowledges that Unvested Common Units shall not entitle the holder thereof to any distributions, other than Tax Distributions as set forth in Section 8.01(d), with respect to any such Unvested Common Units until, and only if, such Units become Vested Common Units as set forth on Schedule B hereto or the Equity Incentive Plan and the applicable Award Agreement thereunder. To the extent that Common Units are Unvested Common Units as of the date of a distribution, amounts otherwise payable to holders of such Unvested Common Units pursuant to Section 8.01(a)(v) shall be paid to the holders of Series B Preferred Units ratably among such Members who hold Series B Preferred Units based upon the relative number of Series B Preferred Units held by each such Member as of the date of such distribution. In the event any such Unvested Common Units become Vested Common Units, and the holders of such Unvested Common Units would have been entitled to a distribution (for the avoidance of doubt, excluding all Tax Distributions) had such Unvested Common Units been vested, then, following the vesting of any such Common Units, prior to making any further distributions under Section 8.01(a)(v), the Board shall make a distribution from the amounts otherwise distributable to the holders of Series B Preferred Units, Vested Common Units and Vested Class P Units to the Member(s) holding such newly Vested Common Units in an amount equal to (A) the portion of the distribution that such Member(s) would have received if their Unvested Common Units had been Vested Common Units as of the date of the prior distribution, plus (B) additional distributions to the Members then holding Vested Common Units in such proportions and amounts as determined by the Board to be necessary to cause aggregate distributions to such Members under Section 8.01(a)(v) and this sentence to be in proportion to total outstanding Vested Common Units and Series B Preferred Units. For purposes of calculating amounts distributable to holders of newly Vested Common Units pursuant to this paragraph, all Common Units that have been cancelled, forfeited or repurchased by the LLC prior to any such distribution shall be treated as outstanding Series B Preferred Units (and not Common Units or Class P Units) solely for the purpose of Section 8.01(a)(v) as of the date of determination of each such distribution.

(ii) In furtherance of the provisos set forth in Section 8.01(a)(v), each of the Members hereby agrees and acknowledges that Unvested Class P Units shall not entitle the holder thereof to any distributions, other than Tax Distributions as set forth in Section 8.01(d), with respect to any such Unvested

Class P Units until, and only if, such Units become Vested Class P Units as set forth in the Equity Incentive Plan and the Award Agreements thereunder. To the extent that amounts otherwise payable to holders of Vested Class P Units have been paid to the holders of Series B Preferred Units and/or Vested Common Units, then, following the vesting of any such Class P Units, prior to making any further distributions under Section 8.01(a)(v), the Board shall make a subsequent distribution from the amounts otherwise distributable to the holders of Series B Preferred Units, Vested Common Units and Vested Class P Units to the Member(s) holding such newly Vested Class P Units in an amount equal to (A) the portion of the distribution that such Member(s) would have received if their Unvested Class P Units were Vested Class P Units as of the date of the prior distribution, plus (B) additional distributions to the Members then holding Vested Class P Units in such proportions and amounts as determined by the Board to be necessary to cause aggregate distributions to such Members under Section 8.01(a)(v) and this sentence to be in proportion to total outstanding Vested Class P Units, Vested Common Units and Series B Preferred Units.

(iii) If distributions are to be made to both Vested Common Units and Vested Class P Units pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 8.01(c), the Board shall apportion such distributions among the Vested Common Units, on the one hand, and the Vested Class P Units, on the other hand, pro-rata in accordance with the relative Ownership Percentages of the holders of such Units.

(d) Tax Distributions. Except as otherwise limited by the Act, and subject to determination by the Board in its sole discretion that the LLC has available funds, within ninety (90) days following the end of each calendar year (or such shorter period as is determined at any time by the Board in its sole discretion), the LLC shall distribute to each Member, with respect to each class of Units held by such Member, an amount (a “Tax Distribution”) equal to the Member’s Tax Liability (as defined below) in respect of such class of Units since the last date on which a Tax Distribution was made. A Member’s “Tax Liability” shall give effect to the class of Units then held by the applicable Member and shall be equal to the product of (i) the Tax Rate (as defined below) and (ii) the Member’s allocable share of the LLC’s net taxable income, if any, for the period since the last period for which a Tax Distribution was made (as determined under Code Section 703(a) but including separately stated items described in Code Section 702(a)) in respect of such class of Units; provided, that items of income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to the sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of the LLC shall be excluded from such calculation. The “Tax Rate” shall mean, for any period, an assumed rate equal to the highest effective combined U.S. federal, state and local tax rate that is applicable, which may be equitably adjusted in the discretion of the Board to account for periods during which the Tax Rate changes and to take into account other factors determined to be relevant by the Board. In the event a Member’s allocable share of LLC net taxable income in respect of a class of Units for any period is negative, such negative amount shall be carried forward and taken into account for all purposes of this Section 8.01 (including application of this sentence) in determining such Member’s distributive share of LLC net taxable income in respect of such class of Units in each subsequent period (whether or not in the same Taxable Year) until such negative amount is offset in full by positive net taxable income. Any Tax Distributions received by a Member in respect of such Member's Series B Preferred Units, Common Units or Class P Units shall be considered advances of amounts otherwise distributable to such Member pursuant to Section 8.01(a)(v) only. Nothing herein shall limit, or be deemed to limit, the making of Tax Distributions with respect to Unvested Common Units or Unvested Class P Units.

(e) Distributions Limited. No Member shall be entitled to any distribution or payment with respect to its interest in the LLC upon the resignation or withdrawal of such Member except to the extent that the LLC exercises its option to purchase the interest of such Member under Section 10.05. Distributions may be limited and repayable as provided in the Act.

(f) Erroneous Distributions. If the LLC has, pursuant to any clear and manifest accounting or similar error, paid any Member an amount in excess of the amount to which it is entitled pursuant to this Article 8 (in each case, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion), then such Member shall reimburse the LLC to the extent of such excess, without interest, within thirty (30) days after demand by the LLC.

8.02 DISTRIBUTION UPON LIQUIDATION EVENTS. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up, voluntary or involuntary, of the LLC, a sale, license, lease or transfer of all or substantially all of the LLC's assets, a consolidation or merger of the LLC with another entity, any transaction pursuant to or as a result of which a single party (or group of affiliated parties) acquires or holds equity securities of the LLC representing a majority of the outstanding voting power of the LLC, or a sale, license, lease or transfer of all or substantially all of the LLC's assets (each such event, a "Liquidation Event"), amounts available upon such Liquidation Event, after payment of, or adequate provision for, the debts and obligations of the LLC, including the expenses of its liquidation and dissolution, the payment of any liabilities to its Officers or Members, if any, other than liabilities to Members for distributions shall be distributed and applied in the following priorities:

(a) First, to fund reserves to the extent deemed appropriate by the Board for contingent, conditional, unmatured or other liabilities of the LLC not otherwise paid or provided for, provided that, upon the expiration of such period of time as the Board shall deem advisable, the balance of such reserves remaining after payment of such liabilities shall be distributed in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

(b) Thereafter, as provided in Section 8.01(a), Section 8.01(b) and Section 8.01(c).

8.03 DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS IN KIND. No Member shall have the right to require any distribution of any assets of the LLC to be made in cash or in kind. If any assets of the LLC are distributed in kind, such assets shall be distributed pursuant to Section 8.01(a) on the basis of their fair market value as determined by the Board. Any Member entitled to any interest in such assets shall, unless otherwise determined by the Board, receive separate assets of the LLC, and not an interest as tenant-in-common with other Members so entitled in each asset being distributed.

8.04 WITHHOLDING.

(a) The LLC is authorized to withhold from distributions to a Member, and to pay over to a U.S. federal, state or local government, any amounts required to be withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other U.S. federal, state or local law (a “Withholding Payment”). Any Withholding Payment will be treated as having been distributed to such Member pursuant to this Article 8 for all purposes of this Agreement, and will be offset against the amounts otherwise distributable to such Member. Each Member shall reimburse the LLC for any liability it may incur for the failure to properly withhold taxes in respect of such Member. Each Member hereby agrees that none of the LLC, the LLC Representative or the Board shall be liable for any excess taxes withheld in respect of a Member’s interest in the LLC and that, in the event of over-withholding, a Member’s sole recourse shall be to apply for a refund from the applicable governmental authority. Any refund of taxes previously withheld by a third-party shall be apportioned among the Members in a manner reasonably determined by the Board to offset the prior operation of Section 8.04(a) in respect of such withheld taxes. In addition, if the LLC is obligated to pay any taxes (including penalties, interest and any addition to tax) to any governmental authority that are attributable to a Member’s transfer of an interest in the LLC, including, without limitation, on account of Sections 864 or 1446 of the Code, then (x) both such former Member and such former Member’s transferee(s) shall indemnify the LLC in full for the entire amount paid or payable, (y) the Board may offset future distributions to which such Member’s transferee(s) is otherwise entitled under this Agreement against such Person’s obligation to indemnify the LLC under this Section 8.04(a) and (z) such amounts shall be treated as a Withholding Payment pursuant to this Section 8.04(a) with respect to both such former Member and such former Member’s transferee(s), as applicable.

(b) If it is anticipated that, at the due date of a Withholding Payment, the LLC’s withholding obligation, the Member’s share of cash distributions or other amount due is less than the amount of the withholding obligation, the Member with respect to which the withholding obligation applies shall pay to the LLC the amount of such shortfall within thirty (30) days after notice by the LLC. If a Member fails to make the required payment when due hereunder, and the LLC nevertheless pays the withholding, in addition to the LLC’s remedies for breach of this Agreement, the amount paid shall be deemed a recourse loan from the LLC to such Member bearing interest at a rate of 8% per annum, and the LLC shall apply all distributions or payments that would otherwise be made to such Member toward payment of the loan and interest, which payments or distributions shall be applied first to interest and then to principal until the loan is repaid in full.

(c) Any Imputed Underpayment Amount, shall be treated as if it were paid by the LLC as a Withholding Payment with respect to the appropriate Members. The Board shall reasonably determine the portion of an Imputed Underpayment Amount attributable to each Member or former Member. The portion of the Imputed Underpayment Amount that the Board attributes to a Member shall be treated as a Withholding Payment with respect to such Member. The portion of the Imputed Underpayment Amount that the Board attributes to a former Member of the LLC shall be treated as a Withholding Payment with respect to such former Member's transferee(s) or assignee(s), as applicable.

(d) Each Member agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the LLC and the Board from and against any and all liability with respect to Withholding Payments required on behalf of, or with respect to, such Member. A Member's obligation to so indemnify shall survive the liquidation and dissolution of the LLC and/or unless otherwise agreed by the Board, the Member's withdrawal from the LLC or assignment of its interests and the LLC may pursue and enforce all rights and remedies it may have against each such Member under this Section 8.04.

8.05 ALLOCATIONS.

(a) Allocation of Net Profit and Net Loss. Subject to the other provisions of this Section 8.05, for purposes of adjusting the Capital Accounts of the Members, the Net Profit, Net Loss and, to the extent reasonably appropriate, individual items of income, gain, loss, credit and deduction, for any Taxable Year shall be allocated among the Members in a manner such that the Adjusted Capital Account of each Member, immediately after making such allocation is, as nearly as possible, equal (proportionately) to the distributions that would be made to such Member pursuant to Section 8.02 if the LLC were dissolved, its affairs wound up and its assets sold for cash equal to their Gross Asset Value, all LLC liabilities were satisfied (limited with respect to each Nonrecourse Liability to the Gross Asset Value of the asset securing such liability), and the net assets of the LLC were distributed in accordance with Section 8.02 to the Members immediately after making such allocation, for this purpose treating all Unvested Common Units and Unvested Class P Units as Vested Common Units and Vested Class P Units, respectively.

(b) Regulatory Allocations. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the following special allocations will be made in the following order:

(i) Minimum Gain Chargeback. If there is a net decrease in LLC Minimum Gain or Member Minimum Gain during any Taxable Year, each Member will be specially allocated items of LLC income and gain for such Taxable Year (and, if necessary, subsequent Taxable Years) in an amount equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in such LLC Minimum Gain or Member Minimum Gain, determined in accordance with Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g) and 1.704-2(i)(5). Allocations pursuant to the previous sentence will be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to the Members pursuant thereto. The items to be so allocated will be determined in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2. This provision is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in such section of the Treasury Regulations and will be interpreted consistently therewith.

(ii) Qualified Income Offset. In the event any Member unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations, or distributions described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6) with respect to such Member's Capital Account, items of LLC income and gain will be specially allocated to each such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by the Treasury Regulations, the deficit balance in the Adjusted Capital Account of such Member as quickly as possible; provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 8.05(b)(ii) will be made only if and to the extent that such Member would have an Adjusted Capital Account deficit after all other allocations provided for in this Section 8.05 have been tentatively made as if this Section 8.05(b)(ii) were not in this Agreement. This Section 8.05(b)(ii) is intended to constitute a "qualified income offset" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and will be interpreted consistently therewith.

(iii) Certain Additional Adjustments. To the extent that an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any LLC asset pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b) is required, pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) or Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts as the result of a distribution to a Member in complete liquidation of its interest in the LLC, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis), and such gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Members in accordance with their interests in the LLC in the event that Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) applies, or to the Members to whom such distribution was made in the event that Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4) applies.

(iv) Nonrecourse Deductions. Any Nonrecourse Deductions for any Taxable Year or other period will be allocated among the Members in proportion to the number of Units held by them.

(v) Member Nonrecourse Deductions. The Member Nonrecourse Deductions shall be allocated each year to the Member that bears the economic risk of loss (within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.752-2) for the Member Nonrecourse Debt to which such Member Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable.

(vi) Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in this Section 8.05(b) are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Treasury Regulations under Section 704 of the Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 8 (other than this Section 8.05(b)), the regulatory allocations in this Section 8.05(b) will be taken into account in allocating other LLC items of income, gain, loss, deduction and expense among the Members so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of allocations of other LLC items and such regulatory allocations will be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to the Members pursuant to this Article 8 if such regulatory allocations had not been made.

(vii) Creditable Foreign Taxes. Any creditable foreign taxes within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(viii) will be allocated among the Members in proportion to the Members' distributive shares of income to which the creditable foreign tax relates, pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(viii).

(c) Tax Allocations. Each item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes will be allocated among the Members in the same proportions as the corresponding "book" items are allocated pursuant to Sections 8.05(a) and 8.05(b), except as otherwise provided herein. The tax allocations made pursuant to this Section 8.05(c) will be solely for tax purposes and will not affect any Member's Capital Account or share of non-tax allocations or distributions under this Agreement. In the case of contributed or revalued property, items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit will be allocated solely for U.S. federal income tax purposes in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 704(c) of the Code to take into account the difference between the fair market value of such property and its adjusted tax basis at the time of contribution or revaluation. The LLC may use any allowable method under Section 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to differences between tax basis and Gross Asset Value of assets, other than any asset contributed or deemed contributed by the Members in connection with the formation of the LLC.

(i) For any Taxable Year or other period during which any part of an interest in the LLC is transferred between the Members or to another person, the portion of the Net Profit, Net Loss and other items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit that are allocable with respect to such part of an interest in the LLC shall be apportioned between the transferor and the transferee using any method allowed pursuant to Section 706 of the Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations as chosen by the Board.

(ii) In the event that the Code or any Treasury Regulations require allocations of items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit different from those set forth in this Section 8.05, the Board is hereby authorized to make new allocations in reliance on the Code and such Treasury Regulations, and no such new allocation shall give rise to any claim or cause of action by any Member.

(iii) For purposes of determining a Member's proportional share of the LLC's "excess nonrecourse liabilities" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), each Member's interest in Net Profit shall be such Member's respective interest in the LLC.

ARTICLE 9 TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS

9.01 GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER. No Member may Transfer all or any part of its Units without first complying with the provisions of this Article 9 and, in the case of the Class P Units, the Equity Incentive Plan and the applicable Award Agreement; provided that, a Series B Majority Interest may waive the provisions of Sections 9.04, 9.05, 9.06 or 9.07 with regard to any Transfer. For the purpose of this Agreement, an indirect Transfer shall include any Transfer of Units to any other Person and then Transferring or permitting the Transfer of such other Person in whole or in part.

9.02 PERMITTED TRANSFERS. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article 9, a Member may Transfer all or a portion of such Member's Units, without compliance with the terms of Sections 9.04, 9.05, 9.06 or 9.07, as applicable, provided that (i) the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, (ii) such Transfer would not cause the LLC to be subject to taxation at the entity level for U.S. federal income tax purposes or cause material adverse tax consequences to the LLC or the Members, and (iii) with regard only to transfers pursuant to subsection (a) below, the transferee executes a proxy in favor of the transferor giving the transferor full right, power and authority to vote and otherwise control the Units being transferred, to any of the following persons (each such person, a "Permitted Transferee"):

- (a) with respect to a Member that is a natural person, during the lifetime of such Member a trust or other Person established for the primary benefit of that Member, or such Member's immediate family, and controlled by such Member;
- (b) with respect to a Member that is not a natural person, another person or entity that is an Affiliate of such Member; or
- (c) with respect to a Member that is a natural person and following the death of such Member, to the beneficiary of a will, intestacy probate proceeding or similar proceeding or process with respect to such Member.

9.03 EFFECT OF TRANSFER. If the Transferee is admitted as a Member or is already a Member, the Member Transferring its Units shall be relieved of liability or obligation arising under this Agreement with respect to the Transferred Units arising or accruing under this Agreement on or after the effective date of the Transfer, unless the transferor affirmatively assumes such liability or obligation; provided, however, that the transferor shall not be relieved of any liability for prior distributions unless the Transferee affirmatively assumes such liabilities.

- (a) Any person who acquires in any manner Units or any part thereof in the LLC, whether or not such person has accepted and assumed in writing the terms and provisions of this Agreement or been admitted as a Member, shall be deemed by the acquisition of such Units to have agreed to be subject to and bound by all of the provisions of this Agreement with respect to such Units, including, without limitation, the provisions hereof with respect to any subsequent Transfer of such Units.
- (b) The LLC, its Officers and Members shall be entitled to treat the record owner of Units in the LLC as the absolute owner thereof in all respects, and shall incur no liability for distributions of cash or other property made in good faith to such owner until such time as a written assignment of such Units has been received and accepted by the Board and recorded on the books of the LLC. The Board may refuse to accept and record an assignment until the end of the next successive monthly accounting period of the LLC.

(c) Any Transfer in violation of any provisions of this Agreement shall be null and void and ineffective to Transfer any Units in the LLC and shall not be binding upon or be recognized by the LLC, and any such Transferee shall not be treated as or deemed to be a Member for any purpose. In the event that any Member shall at any time Transfer its Units in violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement, the LLC and the other Members, in addition to all rights and remedies at law and equity, shall have and be entitled to an order restraining or enjoining such transaction, it being expressly acknowledged and agreed that damages at law would be an inadequate remedy for a Transfer in violation of this Agreement.

9.04 RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL ON COMMON UNITS AND CLASS P UNITS. In the event that any Member (other than the Investors) holding Common Units or Class P Units (each, a “Common Transferring Member”) receives a bona fide offer to purchase all or any portion of the Units held by such Member (a “Proposed Common Transaction”) from a Person other than a Permitted Transferee, such Transferring Member may, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.01, 9.02 and 9.05 hereof, Transfer such Units pursuant to and in accordance with the following provisions of this Section 9.04:

(a) The Common Transferring Member shall cause the Proposed Common Transaction and all of the terms thereof to be reduced to writing and shall promptly notify the LLC and the holders of Series B Preferred Units and the holders of Vested Common Units (such holders, the “Common Rights Holders”) of such Common Transferring Member’s desire to effect the Proposed Common Transaction and otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 9.04 and, if applicable, Section 9.05 (such notice, the “Common Offer Notice”). The Common Transferring Member’s Common Offer Notice shall constitute an irrevocable offer to sell all of the Units which are the subject of the Proposed Common Transaction (the “Offered Common Units”) to the LLC and the Common Rights Holders, on the basis described below, at a purchase price equal to the price contained in, and on the same terms and conditions of, the Proposed Common Transaction. The Common Offer Notice shall be accompanied by a true copy of the Proposed Common Transaction (which shall identify the proposed buyer (the “Common Buyer”) and all relevant information in connection therewith).

(b) The LLC shall have the first option to purchase all or a portion of the Offered Common Units. At any time within twenty (20) days after receipt by the LLC of the Common Offer Notice (the “LLC Common Option Period”), the LLC may elect to accept the offer to purchase with respect to any or all of the Offered Common Units and shall give written notice of such election (the “LLC Common Acceptance Notice”) to the Common Transferring Member within the LLC Common Option Period, which notice shall indicate the number of Units that the LLC is willing to purchase. The LLC

Common Acceptance Notice shall constitute a valid, legally binding and enforceable agreement for the sale and purchase of the Units covered by the LLC Common Acceptance Notice. If the LLC accepts the offer to purchase all of the Offered Common Units, the closing for such purchase of the Offered Common Units by the LLC under this Section 9.04(b) shall take place within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the LLC Common Option Period, at the offices of the LLC or on such other date or at such other place as may be agreed to by the Common Transferring Member and the LLC. If the LLC fails to purchase all of the Offered Common Units by exercising its option under this Section 9.04(b) within the period provided, the Common Transferring Member shall so notify the Common Rights Holders promptly (the "Additional Common Offer Notice"), which Additional Common Offer Notice shall identify the Offered Common Units that the LLC has failed to purchase (the "Remaining Common Units"). The Remaining Common Units shall be subject to the options granted to the Common Rights Holders pursuant to Section 9.04(c) below.

(c) If the LLC fails to purchase all of the Offered Common Units under Section 9.04(b) above, at any time within thirty (30) days after receipt by the Common Rights Holders of the Additional Common Offer Notice (the "Common Option Period"), each Common Rights Holder may elect to accept the offer to purchase with respect to any or all of the Remaining Common Units and shall give written notice of such election (the "Common Acceptance Notice") to the Common Transferring Member, each Common Rights Holder and the LLC within the Common Option Period, which notice shall indicate the maximum number of Units that the Common Rights Holder is willing to purchase, including the number of Units it would purchase if one or more other Common Rights Holders do not elect to purchase their Pro Rata Common Fractions (as defined in paragraph (d) below). The Common Acceptance Notice shall constitute a valid, legally binding and enforceable agreement for the sale and purchase of the Units covered by the Common Acceptance Notice. The closing for any purchase of Units by the Common Rights Holders under this Section 9.04(c) (along with the purchase by the LLC of any Units under paragraph (b) above if the LLC is purchasing less than all of the Offered Common Units) shall take place within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the Common Option Period, at the offices of the LLC or on such other date or at such other place as may be agreed to by the Common Transferring Member and such Common Rights Holders. The Common Transferring Member shall notify the Common Rights Holders promptly if any Common Rights Holder fails to offer to purchase all of its Pro Rata Common Fraction (as defined below).

(d) Upon the expiration of the Common Option Period, the number of Units to be purchased by each Common Rights Holder shall be determined as follows: (i) first, there shall be allocated to each Common Rights Holder electing to purchase, a number of Units equal to the lesser of (A) the number of Units as to which such Common Rights Holder accepted as set forth in its respective Common Acceptance Notice or (B) such Common Rights Holder's Pro Rata Common Fraction and (ii) second, the balance, if any, not allocated under clause (i) above, shall be allocated to those Common Rights Holders who within the Common Option Period delivered a Common Acceptance Notice that set forth a number of Units that exceeded their respective Pro Rata Common Fractions, in each case on a pro rata basis in proportion to the number of Units held by each such Common Rights Holder up to the amount of such excess. A Common Rights Holder's "Pro Rata Common Fraction" shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the total number of Remaining Common Units by a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units owned by such Common Rights Holder (including for each holder of Series B Preferred Units, as though such holder owned a pro-rata percentage of any Common Units which are unvested or have been forfeited or cancelled as of such date based on each such holder's relative holdings of Series B Preferred Units), and the denominator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units held by all Common Rights Holders (including all Common Units which are unvested or have been forfeited or cancelled as of such date), in each case as of the date of the Common Offer Notice.

(e) In the event that the price set forth in the Common Offer Notice is stated in consideration other than cash or cash equivalents, the Common Transferring Member, the LLC and the holders of a majority of the Series B Preferred Units shall mutually determine the fair market value of such consideration, reasonably and in good faith, and the LLC and/or the Common Rights Holders, as the case may be, may effect their purchase under this Section 9.04 by payment of such fair market value in cash or cash equivalents.

(f) In the event that the LLC and the Common Rights Holders do not elect to exercise the rights to purchase under this Section 9.04 with respect to all of the Units proposed to be sold, the Common Transferring Member may sell any such remaining Units to the Common Buyer on the terms and conditions set forth in the Common Offer Notice, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.03 and 9.05. Promptly after such Transfer, the Common Transferring Member shall notify the LLC, which in turn shall promptly notify all of the Common Rights Holders, of the consummation thereof and shall furnish such evidence of the completion and time of completion of the Transfer and of the terms thereof as may reasonably be requested by a Series B Majority Interest. Prior to the effectiveness of any Transfer to a Common Buyer hereunder, such Common Buyer shall have agreed in writing to be bound by this Agreement in the same manner as the transferor, and such Common Buyer shall have all of the rights and obligations hereunder as if such Common Buyer were a Member. If the Common Transferring Member's sale to a Common Buyer is not consummated in accordance with the terms of the Proposed Common Transaction on or before sixty (60) calendar days after the latest of: (i) the expiration of the LLC Common Option Period, (ii) the expiration of the Common Option Period, (iii) the expiration of the Common Co-Sale Election Period set forth in Section 9.05 below, if applicable, and (iv) the satisfaction of all governmental approval or filing requirements, the Proposed Common Transaction shall be deemed to lapse, and any Transfers of Units pursuant to such Proposed Common Transaction shall be in violation of the provisions of this Agreement unless the Common Transferring Member sends a new Common Offer Notice and once again complies with the provisions of this Section 9.04 with respect to such Proposed Common Transaction.

9.05 CO-SALE OPTION ON COMMON UNITS AND CLASS P UNITS. In the event that the LLC and/or the Common Rights Holders do not exercise their rights under Section 9.04 with respect to all of the Units proposed to be so Transferred in connection with any Proposed Common Transaction, the Common Transferring Member may Transfer such Units only pursuant to and in accordance with the following provisions of this Section 9.05:

(a) Co-Sale Notice. As soon as practicable following the expiration of the Common Option Period, and in no event later than five (5) days thereafter, the Common Transferring Member shall provide notice to each of the Common Rights Holders (the "Common Co-Sale Notice") of its right to participate in the Proposed Common Transaction on a pro rata basis with the Common Transferring Member (the "Common Co-Sale Option"). To the extent one or more Common Rights Holders exercise their Common Co-Sale Option in accordance with this Section 9.05, the number of Units that the Common Transferring Member may Transfer in the Proposed Common Transaction shall be correspondingly reduced.

(b) Member Acceptance. Each of the Common Rights Holders shall have the right to exercise its Common Co-Sale Option by giving written notice of such intent to participate (the "Common Co-Sale Acceptance Notice") to the Common Transferring Member within ten (10) days after receipt by such Common Rights Holder of the Common Co-Sale Notice (the "Common Co-Sale Election Period"). Each Common Co-Sale Acceptance Notice shall indicate the maximum number of Units subject thereto which such Common Rights Holder wishes to sell, including the number of Units it would sell if one or more other Common Rights Holders do not elect to participate in the sale on the terms and conditions stated in the Common Offer Notice. Any Common Rights Holder shall be permitted to sell to the relevant Common Buyer in connection with any exercise of the Common Co-Sale Option with respect to a sale of Units, Preferred Units, Common Units or Class P Units at a price per Preferred Unit and a price per Common Unit or Class P Unit that reflects the rights, preferences and priorities of the Preferred Units relative to the Common Units or Class P Units, as applicable.

(c) Allocation of Units. Each Common Rights Holder shall have the right to sell a portion of its Units pursuant to the Proposed Common Transaction which is equal to or less than the product obtained by multiplying the total number of Units available for sale to the Common Buyer subject to the Proposed Common Transaction by a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units owned by such Common Rights Holder (including for each holder of Series B Preferred Units, as though such holder owned a pro-rata percentage of any Common Units forfeited or cancelled as of such date based on each such holder's relative holdings of Series B Preferred Units) and the denominator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units and Vested Common Units held by all Common Rights Holders (including all Common Units forfeited or cancelled as of such date) and the Common Transferring Member, as of the date of the Common Offer Notice, subject to increase as hereinafter set forth. In the event any Common Rights Holder does not elect to sell the full amount of such Units which such Common Rights Holder is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 9.05, then any Common Rights Holders who have elected to sell Units shall have the right to sell, on a pro-rata basis (based on the number of Units held by each such Common Rights Holder) with any other Common Rights Holders and up to the maximum number of Units stated in each such Common Rights Holder's Common Co-Sale Acceptance Notice, any Units not elected to be sold by such other Common Rights Holder.

(d) Co-Sale Closing. Within ten (10) calendar days after the end of the Common Co-Sale Election Period, the Common Transferring Member shall promptly notify each participating Common Rights Holder of the number of Units held by such Common Rights Holder that will be included in the sale and the date on which the Proposed Common Transaction will be consummated, which shall be no later than the later of (i) thirty (30) calendar days after the end of the Common Co-Sale Election Period and (ii) the satisfaction of any governmental approval or filing requirements, if any. Each participating Common Rights Holder may effect its participation in any Proposed Common Transaction hereunder by delivery to the Common Buyer, or to the Common Transferring Member for delivery to the Common Buyer, of one or more instruments or certificates, properly endorsed for transfer, representing the Units it elects to sell pursuant thereto. At the time of consummation of the Proposed Common Transaction, the Common Buyer shall remit directly to each participating Common Rights Holder that portion of the sale proceeds to which the participating Common Rights Holder is entitled by reason of its participation with respect thereto. No Units may be purchased by the Common Buyer from the Common Transferring Member unless the Common Buyer simultaneously purchases from the participating Common Rights Holders all of the Units that they have elected to sell pursuant to this Section 9.05.

(e) Liability of Members. No Common Rights Holder shall be required to make any representations or warranties or to provide any indemnities in connection therewith other than with respect to title to the Units being conveyed.

(f) Sale to Third Party. Any Units held by a Common Transferring Member that are the subject of the Proposed Common Transaction and that the Common Transferring Member desires to Transfer following compliance with this Section 9.05, may be sold to the Common Buyer only during the period specified in Section 9.05(d) and only on terms no more favorable to the Common Transferring Member than those contained in the Common Offer Notice. Promptly after such Transfer, the Common Transferring Member shall notify the LLC, which in turn shall promptly notify all the Common Rights Holders, of the consummation thereof and shall furnish such evidence of the completion and time of completion of the Transfer and of the terms thereof as may reasonably be requested by a Series B Majority Interest. Prior to the effectiveness of any Transfer to a Common Buyer hereunder, such Common Buyer shall have joined this Agreement, and such Common Buyer shall have all the rights and obligations hereunder as if such Common Buyer were a Member. In the event that the Proposed Common Transaction is not consummated within the period required by this Section 9.05 or the Common Buyer fails timely to remit to each participating Common Rights Holder its respective portion of the sale proceeds, the Proposed Common Transaction shall be deemed to lapse, and any Transfer of Units pursuant to such Proposed Common Transaction shall be in violation of the provisions of this Agreement unless the Common Transferring Member sends a new Common Offer Notice and once again complies with the provisions of Sections 9.04 and 9.05 with respect to such Proposed Common Transaction.

9.06 RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL ON PREFERRED UNITS. In the event that any Member holding Preferred Units (a “Preferred Transferring Member”) receives a bona fide offer to purchase all or any portion of the Units held by such Investor (a “Proposed Preferred Transaction”) from a Person other than a Permitted Transferee, such Preferred Transferring Member may, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.01, 9.02 and 9.07 hereof, Transfer such Units pursuant to and in accordance with the following provisions of this Section 9.06:

(a) The Preferred Transferring Member shall cause the Proposed Preferred Transaction and all of the terms thereof to be reduced to writing and shall promptly notify the LLC and each holder of Preferred Units (the “Preferred Rights Holders”) of such Preferred Transferring Member’s desire to effect the Proposed Preferred Transaction and otherwise comply with the provisions of this Section 9.06 and, if applicable, Section 9.07 (such notice, the “Preferred Offer Notice”). The Preferred Transferring Member’s Preferred Offer Notice shall constitute an irrevocable offer to sell all of the Units which are the subject of the Proposed Preferred Transaction (the “Offered Preferred Units”) to the LLC and the Preferred Rights Holders, on the basis described below, at a purchase price equal to the price contained in, and on the same terms and conditions of, the Proposed Preferred Transaction. The Preferred Offer Notice shall be accompanied by a true copy of the Proposed Preferred Transaction (which shall identify the proposed buyer (the “Preferred Buyer”) and all relevant information in connection therewith).

(b) The LLC shall have the first option to purchase all or a portion of the Offered Preferred Units. At any time within twenty (20) days after receipt by the LLC of the Preferred Offer Notice (the “LLC Preferred Option Period”), the LLC may elect to accept the offer to purchase with respect to any or all of the Offered Preferred Units and shall give written notice of such election (the “LLC Preferred Acceptance Notice”) to the Preferred Transferring Member within the LLC Preferred Option Period, which notice shall indicate the number of Units that the LLC is willing to purchase. The LLC Preferred Acceptance Notice shall constitute a valid, legally binding and enforceable agreement for the sale and purchase of the Units covered by the LLC Preferred Acceptance Notice. If the LLC accepts the offer to purchase all of the Offered Preferred Units, the closing for such purchase of the Offered Preferred Units by the LLC under this Section 9.06(b) shall take place within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the LLC Preferred Option Period, at the offices of the LLC or on such other date or at such other place as may be agreed to by the Preferred Transferring Member and the LLC. If the LLC fails to purchase all of the Offered Preferred Units by exercising its option under this Section 9.06(b) within the period provided, the Preferred Transferring Member shall so notify the Preferred Rights Holders promptly (the “Additional Preferred Offer Notice”), which Additional Preferred Offer Notice shall identify the Offered Preferred Units that the LLC has failed to purchase (the “Remaining Preferred Units”). The Remaining Preferred Units shall be subject to the options granted to the Preferred Rights Holders pursuant to Section 9.06(c) below.

(c) If the LLC fails to purchase all of the Offered Preferred Units under Section 9.06(b) above, at any time within thirty (30) days after receipt by the Preferred Rights Holders of the Additional Preferred Offer Notice (the “Preferred Option Period”), each Preferred Rights Holder may elect to accept the offer to purchase with respect to any or all of the Remaining Preferred Units and shall give written notice of such election (the “Preferred Acceptance Notice”) to the Preferred Transferring Member and each Preferred Rights Holder within the Preferred Option Period, which notice shall indicate the maximum number of Units that the Preferred Rights Holder is willing to purchase, including the number of Units it would purchase if one or more other Preferred Rights Holders do not elect to purchase their Pro Rata Preferred Fractions (as defined in paragraph (d) below). The Preferred Acceptance Notice shall constitute a valid, legally binding and enforceable agreement for the sale and purchase of the Units covered by the Preferred Acceptance Notice. The closing for any purchase of Units by the Preferred Rights Holders under this Section 9.06(c) (along with the purchase by the LLC of any Units under paragraph (b) above if the LLC is purchasing less than all of the Offered Preferred Units) shall take place within thirty (30) days following the expiration of Preferred Option Period, at the offices of the LLC or on such other date or at such other place as may be agreed to by the Preferred Transferring Member and such Preferred Rights Holders. The Preferred Transferring Member shall notify the Preferred Rights Holders promptly if any Preferred Rights Holder fails to offer to purchase all of its Pro Rata Preferred Fraction (as defined below).

(d) Upon the expiration of the Preferred Option Period, the number of Units to be purchased by each Preferred Rights Holder shall be determined as follows: (i) first, there shall be allocated to each Preferred Rights Holder electing to purchase, a number of Units equal to the lesser of (A) the number of Units as to which such Preferred Rights Holder accepted as set forth in its respective Preferred Acceptance Notice or (B) such Preferred Rights Holder’s Pro Rata Preferred Fraction and (ii) second, the balance, if any, not allocated under clause (i) above, shall be allocated to those Preferred Rights Holders who within the Preferred Option Period delivered a Preferred Acceptance Notice that set forth a number of Units that exceeded their respective Pro Rata Preferred Fractions, in each case on a pro rata basis in proportion to the number of Units held by each such Preferred Rights Holder up to the amount of such excess. A Preferred Rights Holder’s “Pro Rata Preferred Fraction” shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the total number of Remaining Preferred Units by (i) if the Offered Preferred Units are Series A Preferred Units, a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Series A Preferred Units owned by such Preferred Rights Holder, and the denominator of which is the total number of Series A Preferred Units held by all Preferred Rights Holders, in each case as of the date of the Preferred Offer Notice and (ii) if the Offered Preferred Units are Series B Preferred Units, a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units owned by such Preferred Rights Holder, and the denominator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units held by all Preferred Rights Holders, in each case as of the date of the Preferred Offer Notice.

(e) In the event that the price set forth in the Preferred Offer Notice is stated in consideration other than cash or cash equivalents, the Preferred Transferring Member, the LLC and a Series B Majority Interest shall mutually determine the fair market value of such consideration, reasonably and in good faith, and the LLC and/or Preferred Rights Holders, as the case may be, may effect their purchase under this Section 9.06 by payment of such fair market value in cash or cash equivalents.

(f) In the event that the LLC and the Preferred Rights Holders do not elect to exercise the rights to purchase under this Section 9.06 with respect to all of the Units proposed to be sold, the Preferred Transferring Member may sell any such remaining Units to the Preferred Buyer on the terms and conditions set forth in the Preferred Offer Notice, subject to the provisions of Sections 9.03 and 9.07. Promptly after such Transfer, the Preferred Transferring Member shall notify the LLC, which in turn shall promptly notify all the Preferred Rights Holders, of the consummation thereof and shall furnish such evidence of the completion and time of completion of the Transfer and of the terms thereof as may reasonably be requested by a Series B Majority Interest. Prior to the effectiveness of any Transfer to a Preferred Buyer hereunder, such Preferred Buyer shall have agreed in writing to be bound by this Agreement in the same manner as the transferor, and such Preferred Buyer shall have all of the rights and obligations hereunder as if such Preferred Buyer were a Member. If the Preferred Transferring Member's sale to a Preferred Buyer is not consummated in accordance with the terms of the Proposed Preferred Transaction on or before sixty (60) calendar days after the latest of: (i) the expiration of the LLC Preferred Option Period, (ii) the expiration of the Preferred Option Period, (iii) the expiration of the Preferred Co-Sale Election Period set forth in Section 9.07 below, if applicable, and (iv) the satisfaction of all governmental approval or filing requirements, the Proposed Preferred Transaction shall be deemed to lapse, and any Transfers of Units pursuant to such Proposed Preferred Transaction shall be in violation of the provisions of this Agreement unless the Preferred Transferring Member sends a new Preferred Offer Notice and once again complies with the provisions of this Section 9.06 with respect to such Proposed Preferred Transaction.

9.07 CO-SALE OPTION ON PREFERRED UNITS. In the event that the LLC and/or the Preferred Rights Holders do not exercise their rights under Section 9.06 with respect to all of the Units proposed to be so Transferred in connection with any Proposed Preferred Transaction, the Preferred Transferring Member may Transfer such Units only pursuant to and in accordance with the following provisions of this Section 9.07:

(a) Co-Sale Notice. As soon as practicable following the expiration of the Preferred Option Period, and in no event later than five (5) days thereafter, the Preferred Transferring Member shall provide notice to each of the Preferred Rights Holders (the "Preferred Co-Sale Notice") of its right to participate in the Proposed Preferred Transaction on a pro rata basis with the Preferred Transferring Member (the "Preferred Co-Sale Option"). To the extent one or more Members exercise their Preferred Co-Sale Option in accordance with this Section 9.07, the number of Units that the Preferred Transferring Member may Transfer in the Proposed Preferred Transaction shall be correspondingly reduced.

(b) Member Acceptance. Each of the Preferred Rights Holders shall have the right to exercise its Preferred Co-Sale Option by giving written notice of such intent to participate (the “Preferred Co-Sale Acceptance Notice”) to the Preferred Transferring Member within ten (10) days after receipt by such Preferred Rights Holder of the Preferred Co-Sale Notice (the “Preferred Co-Sale Election Period”). Each Preferred Co-Sale Acceptance Notice shall indicate the maximum number of Units subject thereto which such Preferred Rights Holder wishes to sell, including the number of Units it would sell if one or more other Preferred Rights Holders do not elect to participate in the sale on the terms and conditions stated in the Preferred Offer Notice. In connection with any proposed sale of (1) Series A Preferred Units, each Preferred Rights Holder may only sell Series A Preferred Units and (2) Series B Preferred Units, each Preferred Rights Holder may only sell Series B Preferred Units.

(c) Allocation of Units. Each Preferred Rights Holder shall have the right to sell a portion of its applicable Preferred Units pursuant to the Proposed Preferred Transaction which is equal to or less than the product obtained by multiplying the total number of applicable Preferred Units available for sale to the Preferred Buyer subject to the Proposed Preferred Transaction by (i) if the Preferred Units are Series A Preferred Units, a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Series A Preferred Units owned by such Preferred Rights Holder, and the denominator of which is the total number of Series A Preferred Units held by all Preferred Rights Holders (including the Preferred Transferring Member), in each case as of the date of the Preferred Offer Notice and (ii) if the Preferred Units are Series B Preferred Units, a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units owned by such Preferred Rights Holder, and the denominator of which is the total number of Series B Preferred Units held by all Preferred Rights Holders (including the Preferred Transferring Member), in each case as of the date of the Preferred Offer Notice. In the event any Preferred Rights Holder does not elect to sell the full amount of such Preferred Units which such Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 9.07, then any Preferred Rights Holders who have elected to sell Units shall have the right to sell, on a pro-rata basis (based on the number of applicable Preferred Units held by each such Preferred Rights Holder) with any other Preferred Rights Holder and up to the maximum number of Units stated in each such Preferred Rights Holder’s Preferred Co-Sale Acceptance Notice, any Units not elected to be sold by such other Preferred Rights Holder.

(d) Co-Sale Closing. Within ten (10) calendar days after the end of the Preferred Co-Sale Election Period, the Preferred Transferring Member shall promptly notify each participating Preferred Rights Holder of the number of Units held by such Preferred Rights Holder that will be included in the sale and the date on which the Proposed Preferred Transaction will be consummated, which shall be no later than the later of (i) thirty (30) calendar days after the end of the Preferred Co-Sale Election Period and (ii) the satisfaction of any governmental approval or filing requirements, if any. Each participating Preferred Rights Holder may effect its participation in any Proposed Preferred Transaction hereunder by delivery to the Preferred Buyer, or to the Preferred Transferring Member for delivery to the Preferred Buyer, of one or more instruments or certificates, properly endorsed for transfer, representing the Units it elects to sell pursuant thereto. At the time of consummation of the Proposed Preferred Transaction, the Preferred Buyer shall remit directly to each participating Preferred

Rights Holder that portion of the sale proceeds to which the participating Preferred Rights Holder is entitled by reason of its participation with respect thereto. No Units may be purchased by the Preferred Buyer from the Preferred Transferring Member unless the Preferred Buyer simultaneously purchases from the participating Preferred Rights Holders all of the Units that they have elected to sell pursuant to this Section 9.07.

(e) Liability of Members. No Preferred Rights Holder shall be required to make any representations or warranties or to provide any indemnities in connection therewith other than with respect to title to the Units being conveyed.

(f) Sale to Third Party. Any Units held by a Preferred Transferring Member that are the subject of the Proposed Preferred Transaction and that the Preferred Transferring Member desires to Transfer following compliance with this Section 9.07, may be sold to the Preferred Buyer only during the period specified in Section 9.07(d) and only on terms no more favorable to the Preferred Transferring Member than those contained in the Preferred Offer Notice. Promptly after such Transfer, the Preferred Transferring Member shall notify the LLC, which in turn shall promptly notify all of the Members, of the consummation thereof and shall furnish such evidence of the completion and time of completion of the Transfer and of the terms thereof as may reasonably be requested by a Series B Majority Interest. Prior to the effectiveness of any Transfer to a Preferred Buyer hereunder, such Preferred Buyer shall have joined this Agreement, and such Preferred Buyer shall have all of the rights and obligations hereunder as if such Preferred Buyer were a Member. In the event that the Proposed Preferred Transaction is not consummated within the period required by this Section 9.07 or the Preferred Buyer fails to timely remit to each participating Member its respective portion of the sale proceeds, the Proposed Preferred Transaction shall be deemed to lapse, and any Transfer of Units pursuant to such Proposed Preferred Transaction shall be in violation of the provisions of this Agreement unless the Preferred Transferring Member sends a new Preferred Offer Notice and once again complies with the provisions of Sections 9.06 and 9.07 with respect to such Proposed Preferred Transaction.

9.08 TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS BY OFFICERS. A Member who is also an Officer shall Transfer only the economic interests, rights, duties and obligations of the transferor in its capacity as a Member, and no Transferee shall obtain as a result of any such assignment any rights as an Officer.

9.09 DRAG ALONG RIGHT.

(a) In the event a Series B Majority Interest (the “Selling Investors”) approves a Sale Event, each of the Members, including any of its successors as contemplated herein, hereby agrees, and shall be obligated to:

(i) if such transaction requires Member approval, with respect to all Units that such Member owns or over which such Member otherwise exercises voting power, to vote (in person, by proxy or by action by written consent, as applicable) all Units in favor of, and adopt, such Sale Event and to vote in opposition to any and all other proposals that could delay or impair the ability of the LLC to consummate such Sale Event;

(ii) if such transaction is a Unit Sale, sell the same proportion of Units beneficially held by such Member as is being sold by the Selling Investors to the Person to whom the Selling Investors propose to sell their Units, and, on the same terms and conditions as the Selling Investors; provided that, the price per Unit shall reflect the relative preferences and priorities of the Preferred Units and the Benchmark Amount of the Common Units and the Class P Units;

(iii) to execute and deliver all related documentation and take such other action in support of the Sale Event as shall reasonably be requested by the LLC or the Selling Investors in order to carry out the terms and provision of this Section 9.09, including, without limitation, executing and delivering instruments of conveyance and transfer, and any purchase agreement, merger agreement, indemnity agreement, escrow agreement, consent, waiver, governmental filing, share certificates duly endorsed for transfer (free and clear of impermissible liens, claims and encumbrances) and any similar or related documents;

(iv) not deposit, and to cause their Affiliates to not deposit, except as provided in this Agreement, any Units of the LLC owned by such party or Affiliate in a voting trust or subject any Units to any arrangement or agreement with respect to the voting of such Units, unless specifically requested to do so by the acquirer in connection with the Sale Event;

(v) to refrain from exercising any dissenters' rights or rights of appraisal under applicable law at any time with respect to such Sale Event; and

(vi) if the consideration to be paid in exchange for the Units pursuant to this Section 9.09 includes any securities and due receipt thereof by any Member would require under applicable law (A) the registration or qualification of such securities or of any person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities or (B) the provision to any Member of any information other than such information as a prudent issuer would generally furnish in an offering made solely to "accredited investors" as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, the LLC may cause to be paid to any such Member in lieu thereof, against surrender of the Units which would have otherwise been sold by such Member, an amount in cash equal to the fair value (as determined in good faith by the LLC) of the securities which such Member would otherwise receive as of the date of the issuance of such securities in exchange for the Units.

(b) By executing this Agreement, each Member hereby agrees that the failure by a Member to fulfill its obligations under this Section 9.09 following written notice and the failure to cure within five (5) days shall be deemed an event of default hereunder and upon any such event of default, such defaulting Member hereby (i) grants to the Selling Investors an irrevocable proxy coupled with an interest to vote its Units in accordance with its agreements contained in this Section 9.09, whether in a meeting of Members or any other means by which Members are required or requested to vote, consent, approve or otherwise take action or exercise any rights as a holder of Units or in their capacities as Members of the LLC, including a vote or other approval in favor of any Sale Event under this Section 9.09 if a Member vote is required or requested (whether by law or in accordance with this Agreement) to effect such Sale Event, and (ii) irrevocably appoints the Selling Investors as its agent and attorney-in-fact (the “Agent”) (with full power of substitution) to act with respect to its Units in accordance with its agreements contained in this Section 9.09, whether in a meeting of Members or any other means by which Members are required or requested to vote, consent, approve or otherwise take action or exercise any rights as a holder of Units or in their capacities as Members of the LLC, and to execute all consents, agreements, instruments and certificates and take all actions necessary or desirable to effectuate its agreements contained in this Section 9.09, including any Sale Event; provided, however, that such power-of-attorney and proxy shall automatically terminate in the event that the provisions of this Section 9.09 terminate (in accordance with the terms of this Agreement). Each such defaulting Member hereby grants to the Agent, pursuant to such proxy and power of attorney, full power and authority to do and perform any and every act and thing whatsoever requisite, necessary, or proper to be done in the exercise of any of the rights and powers herein granted, as fully to all intents and purposes as the undersigned might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution or revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that such Agent, or such Agent’s substitute or substitutes, shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of such proxy and power of attorney and the rights and powers herein granted.

9.10 TAX FORMS/WITHHOLDING. Prior to the Transfer of any Units, the Members shall comply with the following:

(a) if the Member who proposes to transfer any Units (or if such Member is a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the first direct or indirect beneficial owner of such Member that is not a disregarded entity (the “Member’s Owner”)) is a “United States person” as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, then such Member (or Member’s Owner, if applicable) shall complete and provide to both of the transferee and the LLC, a duly executed affidavit in the form provided to such transferring Member by the LLC, certifying, under penalty of perjury, that the transferring Member (or Member’s Owner, if applicable) is not a foreign person, nonresident alien, foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust, or foreign estate (as such terms are defined under the Code and applicable United States Treasury Regulations) and the transferring Member’s (or Member’s Owner’s, if applicable) United States taxpayer identification number; or

(b) if the Member who proposes to transfer any Units (or if such Member is a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Member’s Owner) is not a “United States person” as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, then such transferor and transferee shall jointly provide to the LLC written proof reasonably satisfactory to the Board that any applicable withholding tax that may be imposed on such transfer (including pursuant to Sections 864 and 1446 of the Code) and any related tax returns or forms that are required to be filed, have been, or will be, timely paid and filed, as applicable.

Without limiting the foregoing provisions of this Section 9.10: (i) if the LLC is obligated to pay any taxes (including penalties, interest and any addition to tax) to any governmental entity that is specifically attributable to a transfer of any interest in the Partnership, including, without limitation, on account of Code Section 864 or 1446, then (x) the Member who transferred such interest in the LLC and the applicable transferee(s) shall indemnify the LLC in full for the entire amount paid or payable, (y) the Board may offset future distributions to which such Person is otherwise entitled under this Agreement against such Person's obligation to indemnify the Partnership under this Section 9.10 and (z) such amounts shall be treated as a Withholding Payment with respect to both such former Member and such former Member's transferee(s), as applicable and (ii) as a condition to any transfer, the Board may require written proof reasonably satisfactory to the Board that any applicable withholding tax that may be imposed on such transfer and any related tax returns or forms that are required to be filed, have been, or will be, timely paid and filed, as applicable, unless waived by the Board in its sole discretion.

9.11 TERMINATION. The obligations under this Article 9 shall terminate upon the closing of a QPO.

ARTICLE 10 DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

10.01 DISSOLUTION. The LLC shall dissolve and its affairs shall be wound up upon the first to occur of the following:

- (b) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act; or
- (c) the consolidation or merger of the LLC in which it is not the resulting or surviving entity.

10.02 NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION. The Executive Officer(s) shall promptly notify the Members of the dissolution of the LLC.

10.03 LIQUIDATION. Upon dissolution of the LLC, the Board shall act as its liquidating trustee or the Board may appoint one or more persons (who may or may not be Members) as liquidating trustee. The liquidating trustee shall proceed diligently to liquidate the LLC, to wind up its affairs and to make final distributions as provided in Section 8.02 and in the Act. The costs of dissolution and liquidation shall be an expense of the LLC. Until final distribution, the liquidating trustee may continue to operate the business and properties of the LLC with all of the power and authority of the Officers. As promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, the liquidating trustee shall cause an accounting to be made by a firm of independent public accountants of the LLC's assets, liabilities, operations and liquidating distributions to be given to the Members.

10.04 CERTIFICATE OF CANCELLATION. Upon completion of the distribution of LLC assets as provided herein, the LLC shall be terminated, and an Executive Officer (or such other person or persons as the Act may require or permit) shall file a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware under the Act, cancel any other filings made pursuant to Sections 1.02, 1.04 and 1.06, and take such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the existence of the LLC.

10.05 PAYMENTS TO TERMINATING MEMBER. In the event that a Member withdraws from the LLC in violation of this Agreement (a “Terminating Member”), the LLC shall have the option to purchase all or any part of the interest of the Terminating Member at a purchase price determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this Section and upon the terms and conditions set forth below (unless otherwise agreed). The Terminating Member must give the LLC prompt notice of its withdrawal, and the option shall be exercisable in the LLC’s sole discretion by giving notice to the Terminating Member or its legal representative, at any time within ninety (90) days thereafter. Such notice shall state the price and terms of the LLC’s election to repurchase the interest of the Terminating Member, and the date set for the closing of the repurchase.

(a) Unless the parties otherwise agree, the purchase price (the “Purchase Price”) to be paid to the Terminating Member shall be an amount equal to the amount such Terminating Member would receive with respect to the portion of the interest of the Terminating Member that the LLC has elected to repurchase if the LLC sold all of its assets for cash at current fair market value, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion, and applied the proceeds as provided in Section 8.02. The Purchase Price may be reduced by such damages as the Board (other than any Terminating Member) determine in their sole discretion have been or will be suffered by the LLC as a result of a termination due to the resignation of the Terminating Member. The parties to this Agreement agree that such determination of damages is final, conclusive and binding and such determination is not subject to appeal.

(b) Payment of the Purchase Price may be made in the Board’s sole discretion (i) by check or by wire transfer to a bank account designated in writing by the Terminating Member, (ii) by delivery of a promissory note under which payments shall be made in equal annual installments over a period of five (5) years commencing on the date of such promissory note, with interest at the applicable federal rate established by the IRS for the month in which the repurchase by the LLC is closed, which note shall be unsecured and subordinated to all debts and liabilities of the LLC, or (iii) by any combination of (i) and (ii). Amounts due shall be subject to offset as provided in Section 11.01.

(c) The LLC shall have the right (to be exercised in the discretion of the Board) to assign all or part of its rights under an option which it has elected to exercise to another Member or a third party to be admitted as a new Member, provided that the assigned portion of the Purchase Price shall be payable by check or wire transfer and not by delivery of a note under paragraph (b).

(d) Failure of the LLC to elect to purchase any interests of a Terminating Member under this Section 10.05 shall not affect the rights of the LLC to purchase the same interests under any other provision of this Agreement or any other agreement, and any Units not repurchased hereunder shall continue to be subject to all of the provisions of this Agreement.

(e) Upon payment of the Purchase Price at the closing of a repurchase as provided above, (i) the Terminating Member shall cease to have any rights with respect to the Units being repurchased and (ii) if all of its Units are repurchased from a Terminating Member, such Terminating Member shall cease to be a Member of the LLC.

ARTICLE 11 GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.01 OFFSET. Whenever the LLC is obligated to make a distribution or payment to any Member, any amounts due and owing from that Member to the LLC may be deducted from said distribution or before payment by the LLC.

11.02 NOTICES. Except as expressly set forth to the contrary in this Agreement, all notices, requests, or consents required or permitted to be given under this Agreement must be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given (a) three (3) days after the date mailed by registered or certified mail, addressed to the recipient, with return receipt requested, (b) upon delivery to the recipient in person or by courier, (c) upon receipt of a facsimile transmission by the recipient, or (d) upon receipt of electronic mail by the recipient. Such notices, requests and consents shall be given (i) to Members at their numbers or addresses on Schedule A, or such other numbers or addresses as a Member may specify by notice to the Executive Officer(s) or to all of the other Members, and (ii) to the LLC or the Executive Officer(s) at the address of the principal office of LLC specified in Section 1.04. Whenever any notice is required to be given by law, the Certificate or this Agreement, a written waiver thereof, signed by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

11.03 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Members, the Directors and the Executive Officer(s) relating to the LLC and supersedes all prior contracts or agreements with respect to the LLC, whether oral or written.

11.04 AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, this Agreement may be amended or modified from time to time only by a written instrument signed by a Series B Majority Interest; provided that (a) no amendment may amend any of the rights, preferences or priorities of the Series A Preferred Units or Series B Preferred Units without the prior written consent of the holders of a majority of the Series A Preferred Units or Series B Preferred Units, as the case may be, and (b) no amendment which, by its terms, adversely affects the holders of the Common Units and/or the Class P Units in a unique manner relative to the holders of the Preferred Units shall be effective without the prior written consent of the holders of a majority of the Common Units or the Class P Units, as applicable; provided, further, that the authorization and issuance of any equity security of the LLC containing rights, preferences or priorities which are senior to the Common Units and/or Class P Units, as applicable, shall not be deemed an amendment of the rights, preferences or priorities of the Common Units and/or Class P Units for purposes of the foregoing, including, without limitation, any third party arms-length debt or equity financing which does not amend the terms of Schedule B. The parties hereto expressly agree to the amendment and restatement of the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the LLC dated as of [_____] in the form set forth herein.

11.05 REORGANIZATION INTO CORPORATE FORM. Subject to Section 2.05(b), a Majority Interest may, at any time and without the vote or consent of the other Members, effect a reorganization of the LLC in connection with an initial public offering, into a Successor Corporation by whatever means the Majority Interest deems desirable; provided, however, that it shall be a condition precedent to such reorganization that in connection with such reorganization, (i) each Common Unit and Class P Unit shall each be converted into the number of shares of common stock of the Successor Corporation so that each Member's relative percentage ownership interest of the outstanding common stock of the Successor Corporation immediately after such reorganization is such Member's relative percentage ownership interest of the outstanding Common Units and Class P Units in the LLC immediately prior to such reorganization (giving effect to all rights, preferences and priorities of the Preferred Units contemplated herein) and (ii) each Preferred Unit shall be converted into a number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of one or more classes of preferred stock of the Successor Corporation that have all of the rights, preferences and priorities of the Preferred Units contemplated herein and an aggregate value, with respect to each Member holding Preferred Units, equal to such Member's relative percentage ownership interest of the outstanding equity interests in the LLC immediately prior to such reorganization (giving effect to all rights, preferences and priorities of the Preferred Units contemplated herein). In such case, all Members shall provide all necessary cooperation, including, without limitation, the execution of any documents or filings that may be required, and no Member shall have any voting rights or veto power over the decision by the Majority Interest to so reorganize.

11.06 BINDING EFFECT. Subject to the restrictions on Transfers set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement is binding on and inures to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

11.07 GOVERNING LAW; SEVERABILITY. This Agreement is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the law of the State of Delaware, exclusive of its conflict-of-laws principles. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any provision of the Certificate or the Act, the applicable provision of this Agreement shall control, to the extent permitted by law. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of that provision shall be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11.08 FURTHER ASSURANCES. In connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, each Member shall execute and deliver any additional documents and instruments and perform any additional acts that may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and perform the provisions of this Agreement and those transactions, as requested by the Executive Officer(s) or Directors.

11.09 WAIVER OF CERTAIN RIGHTS. Each Member irrevocably waives any right it may have to maintain any action for dissolution of the LLC or for partition of the property of the LLC. The failure of any Member to insist upon strict performance of a covenant hereunder or of any obligation hereunder, irrespective of the length of time for which such failure continues, shall not be a waiver of such Member's right to demand strict compliance herewith in the future. No consent or waiver, express or implied, to or of any breach or default in the performance of any obligation hereunder, shall constitute a consent or waiver to or of any other breach or default in the performance of the same or any other obligation hereunder.

11.10 INTERPRETATION. For the purposes of this Agreement, terms not defined in this Agreement shall be defined as provided in the Act; and all nouns, pronouns and verbs used in this Agreement shall be construed as masculine, feminine, neuter, singular, or plural, whichever shall be applicable. Titles or captions of Articles and Sections contained in this Agreement are inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope of this Agreement or the intent of any provision hereof.

11.11 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including pdf or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g., www.docuSign.com) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

11.12 THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. The provisions of this Agreement are not intended to be for the benefit of any creditor or other person to whom any debts or obligations are owed by, or who may have any claim against, the LLC or any of its Members, Directors or Officers, except for Members, Directors or Officers in their capacities as such. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, no such creditor or person shall obtain any rights under this Agreement or shall, by reason of this Agreement, be permitted to make any claim against the LLC or any Member, Director or Officer.

11.13 SECTION 83(b) ELECTIONS. Any Person who is issued Units (whether Common Units, Class P Units or otherwise) that are subject to a vesting arrangement shall make a timely election under Section 83(b) of the Code and in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.83-2 with respect to such Units and shall provide the LLC a copy of such election within thirty (30) days after receiving such Units.

11.14 PARTNERSHIP STATUS. Subject to Section 11.05, it is the intent of the Members that the LLC shall always be characterized as either a "partnership" or a "disregarded entity" for U.S. federal and state income tax purposes. Neither the LLC nor any Member shall make any election or take any other action inconsistent with such intent. This characterization, solely for such tax purposes, does not create or imply a general partnership among the Members for state law or any other purpose.

All such Common Units shall be Unvested Common Units for all purposes under the Agreement as of the Grant Date and shall vest in accordance with the terms set forth herein.

II. Vesting upon the Acquisition.

[One-Third of the] Common Units issued to the Executive on the Grant Date shall be deemed the “Acquisition Units” and shall vest as of the date on which the Acquisition is consummated (the “Acquisition Date”) on the terms set forth in the Purchase Agreement. As of the Acquisition Date, the Acquisition Units shall become Vested Common Units for all purposes under the Agreement and shall not be subject to forfeiture except as set forth in Section VI of this Schedule B.

III. Time-Based Vesting.

A. [One-Third of the] Common Units issued to the Executive on the Grant Date shall be deemed the “Time Units” and shall vest, and shall become Vested Common Units for all purposes under the Agreement in equal monthly installments, beginning on the last day of the first full month immediately following the Acquisition Date, and on the last day of each of the forty-seven (47) months immediately thereafter, provided the Executive is employed by the LLC or one of its Subsidiaries on each such date.

B. [Immediately prior to the consummation of a Sale Event, all unvested Time Units shall automatically vest and become Vested Common Units for all purposes under the Agreement.] [A Series B Majority Interest may, by an affirmative vote in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, accelerate the vesting of any then unvested Time Units.]

IV. Performance-Based Vesting.

A. [One-Third of the] Common Units issued to the Executive on the Grant Date shall be deemed the “Performance Units” and shall vest based upon the achievement by all of the holders of Preferred Units in respect of their Preferred Units of the following internal rates of return (each, an “IRR”) as determined by the Board in good faith based on amounts of cash or freely tradable securities actually received by or payable to the holders of Preferred Units, calculated on an aggregated basis on or before the earliest of (i) the consummation of a Sale Event, (ii) the consummation of a QPO and (iii) such other Liquidation Event (each a “Trigger Event”):

Aggregate Preferred Unit IRR (%)	% of Performance Units Vested
Less than 20%	0%
Equal to or greater than 20% and less than 35%	A percentage calculated as follows: $(15\% - (35\% - \text{IRR})) / 15\%$
Equal to or greater than 35%	100%

B. A Series B Majority Interest may, by an affirmative vote in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, accelerate the vesting of any then unvested Performance Units.

C. IRR will be calculated using the Microsoft Excel XIRR function. For the purposes of determining IRR-based vesting, Tax Distributions will not count toward the IRR. However, in connection with a Trigger Event, an amount (not less than zero) shall be treated as a distribution made on the Trigger Event equal to the product of (x)(i) the cumulative income allocated in respect of the Preferred Units since the Grant Date minus (ii) the aggregate amount of Tax Distributions paid in respect of the Preferred Units since the Grant Date multiplied by (y) a combined federal and state long term capital gains rate to be determined by the Board in good faith.

V. Election Under Code Section 83(b). The Executive shall, within 30 days following the Grant Date, file with the Internal Revenue Service an election under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Executive shall timely provide a copy of such election to the LLC.

VI. Resignation and Removal.

If the Executive ceases to be employed by the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries for Cause, the Executive’s Unvested Common Units and Vested Common Units shall be cancelled and no longer deemed outstanding. Such cancelled Common Units shall thereafter be available for reissuance, subject to the restrictions and limitations provided in this Agreement. All vesting of Unvested Common Units, including Time Units and Performance Units shall cease as of the earlier of (a) the delivery by the LLC or the Board of a notice of termination of the Executive’s employment and (b) the termination of the Executive’s employment (regardless of the reason for the termination of such Executive’s employment).

If the Executive ceases to be employed by the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries for any reason other than for Cause (including, without limitation, termination as a result of death, resignation or termination by the LLC without Cause), then the Executive’s Unvested Common Units shall be cancelled and no longer deemed outstanding, [and the LLC or its designee (in either case, the “Repurchaser”) shall be entitled to repurchase [all or a portion] of the Executive’s Vested Common Units (the “Repurchase Units”). The purchase price for each Repurchase Unit will be the fair market value of such Repurchase Unit as of immediately following the termination of the Executive’s employment with the LLC and its Subsidiaries, as determined in good faith by the Board (the “Fair Market Value”). After delivery of the Repurchase Notice (as defined below), the Executive and the Board shall mutually discuss the Fair Market Value. If the Executive and the Board are unable to agree upon the Fair Market Value within twenty (20) days of the delivery of the Repurchase Notice, the Board and the Executive shall each select a third-party valuation expert within ten (10) days of the end of such twenty (20)-day period, and such third-party valuation experts shall select another third-party valuation expert, mutually acceptable to both selected third-party valuation experts (the “Valuator”), who shall determine the Fair Market Value].

[The Repurchaser may elect to purchase all or any portion of the Repurchase Units by delivering written notice (a “Repurchase Notice”) to the Executive within thirty (30) days after such termination. The Repurchase Notice will set forth the number of Repurchase Units proposed by the Repurchaser to be acquired from the Executive, the Fair Market Value and the time and place for the closing of the purchase of Repurchase Units, which shall not be more than thirty (30) days after such Repurchase Notice is given, unless the Executive agrees to a different date.]

[The closing of the purchase of Repurchase Units will take place on the date designated by the Repurchaser in the Repurchase Notice; provided, however, that if the determination of the Fair Market Value is submitted to a Valuator then the closing of the purchase of Repurchase Units shall take place within thirty (30) days after the determination of the Fair Market Value by the Valuator. The Repurchaser will pay for the Repurchase Units by delivery of a check or wire transfer of immediately available funds, with such method to be determined by the Repurchaser. The Repurchaser will be entitled to receive representations and warranties from the Executive regarding such sale of Repurchase Units, title to such Repurchase Units (free and clear of any liens or encumbrances) and the authority of the Executive to sell such Repurchase Units.]

The Executive’s employment with the LLC is “at-will” employment and may be terminated at any time with or without cause. All compensation payable to the Executive shall be prorated on a daily basis through the date the Executive’s termination of employment.

“Cause” shall mean a vote of the Board resolving that the Executive should be dismissed as a result of (i) the commission of any act by the Executive constituting financial dishonesty against the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries (which act could be chargeable as a crime under applicable law); (ii) the Executive engaging in any other act of dishonesty, fraud, intentional misrepresentation, moral turpitude, illegality or harassment which, as determined in good faith by the Board, would: (A) materially adversely affect the business or the reputation of the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries with its current or prospective customers, suppliers, lenders and/or other third parties with whom it does or might do business; or (B) expose the LLC or any of its Subsidiaries to a risk of civil or criminal legal damages, liabilities or penalties. In the event that (x) the Executive’s employment with the LLC terminates for any reason other than for Cause (including, without limitation, whether by death, resignation or termination without Cause) and

(y) any of the facts and circumstances described in (i) and (ii) above existed as of the date of the Executive's termination (whether or not known by the Board as of the termination or discovered after any such termination), by a vote of the Board, the LLC may deem the termination of the Executive's employment to have been for Cause and, for all purposes of this Agreement, the termination shall be treated as a termination for Cause and the LLC and the Executive shall have the corresponding rights or obligations associated with a termination for Cause.
