Evolutionary perspectives on organizations, markets, and economies continue to advance across various disciplines. Often work in these disciplines applies to the study of strategic management, but develop apart from one another. The Evolutionary Perspectives on Strategy Conference brings together scholars from various disciplines who share a common interest in understanding strategic management through an evolutionary lens. Some of the papers featured at this conference will be included in a special issue of Strategy Science on Evolutionary Perspectives on Strategy.

Conference Agenda

Friday January 29

12:00-1:00  Arrival at Knight Management Center and box lunches

1:00-1:45  Denrell, Jerker, Chengwei Liu, and Gael Le Mens: “When More Selection is Worse”

1:45-2:15  Discussion, moderated by Bill Barnett

2:15-2:30  Break

2:30-3:15  Gavetti, Giovanni, Constance E. Helfat, and Luigi Marengo: “Searching for and Shaping the External Environment: Toward a General Model of Niche Construction and Endogenous Selection”

3:15-3:45  Discussion, moderated by Adina Sterling

3:45-4:15  Break

5:00-5:30  Discussion, moderated by Dan Levinthal

5:45 PM  Shuttle leaving GSB (Serra Street) going to MacArthur Park

6:00-9:00  Conference Dinner
Saturday January 30

7:45 AM  Shuttle leaving Sheraton Hotel going to GSB

8:00-9:00  Breakfast

9:00-9:45  Bennett, Victor and Jason Snyder: “The Empirics of Learning from Failure”

9:45-10:15  Discussion, moderated by Sharique Hasan

10:15-10:30  Break

10:30-11:15  Hsu, Greta, Ozgecan Kocak, and Balazs Kovacs: “Co-opt or Co-exist? A Study of Medical Cannabis Dispensaries’ Identity-Based Response to Recreational-Use Legalization in Colorado and Washington”

11:15-11:45  Discussion, moderated by Amir Goldberg

11:45-1:00  Lunch

1:00-1:45  Singh, Gurneeta and Jay Anand: “Evolutionary Perspectives on Firms’ Internal and External Portfolios of New Capabilities”

1:45-2:15  Discussion, moderated by JP Ferguson

2:15-2:30  Break

3:15-3:45  Discussion, moderated by Aruna Ranganathan

3:45-4:15  Break

5:00-5:30  Discussion, moderated by Mike Hannan